

STATE-BY-STATE GUIDE TO DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION
CONTRACTS AND CLAIMS

S E C O N D   E D I T I O N

---

Michael Dodd
J. Duncan Findlay

---

V O L U M E   1

CONSTRUCTION LAW LIBRARY

Wolters Kluwer
Law & Business

STATE-BY-STATE GUIDE TO DESIGN AND CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS AND CLAIMS

---

Second Edition

Volume 1

Editors

Michael Dodd, Esq.
J. Duncan Findlay, Esq.

Wolters Kluwer
Law & Business

This publication is designed to provide accurate and authoritative information in regard to the subject matter covered. It is sold with the understanding that the publisher and the author(s) are not engaged in rendering legal, accounting, or other professional services. If legal advice or other professional assistance is required, the services of a competent professional should be sought.

—From a Declaration of Principles jointly adopted by a Committee of the American Bar Association and a Committee of Publishers and Associations

Copyright © 2013 CCH Incorporated. All Rights Reserved.

No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, including electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or utilized by any information storage or retrieval system, without written permission from the publisher. For information about permissions or to request permissions online, visit us at www.aspenpublishers.com/licensing/default.aspx, or a written request may be faxed to our permissions department at 212-771-0803.

Published by Wolters Kluwer Law & Business in New York.

Wolters Kluwer Law & Business serves customers worldwide with CCH, Aspen Publishers and Kluwer Law International products.

Printed in the United States of America

ISBN 13: 978-1-4548-1199-2 (set)
978-1-4548-2778-8 (vol. 1)
978-1-4548-2779-5 (vol. 2)

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 0

---

About Wolters Kluwer Law & Business

Wolters Kluwer Law & Business is a leading global provider of intelligent information and digital solutions for legal and business professionals in key specialty areas, and respected educational resources for professors and law students. Wolters Kluwer Law & Business connects legal and business professionals as well as those in the education market with timely, specialized authoritative content and information-enabled solutions to support success through productivity, accuracy and mobility.

Serving customers worldwide, Wolters Kluwer Law & Business products include those under the Aspen Publishers, CCH, Kluwer Law International, Loislaw, Best Case, ftwilliam.com and MediRegs family of products.

CCH products have been a trusted resource since 1913, and are highly regarded resources for legal, securities, antitrust and trade regulation, government contracting, banking, pension, payroll, employment and labor, and healthcare reimbursement and compliance professionals.

Aspen Publishers products provide essential information to attorneys, business professionals and law students. Written by preeminent authorities, the product line offers analytical and practical information in a range of specialty practice areas from securities law and intellectual property to mergers and acquisitions and pension/benefits. Aspen's trusted legal education resources provide professors and students with high-quality, up-to-date and effective resources for successful instruction and study in all areas of the law.

Kluwer Law International products provide the global business community with reliable international legal information in English. Legal practitioners, corporate counsel and business executives around the world rely on Kluwer Law journals, looseleafs, books, and electronic products for comprehensive information in many areas of international legal practice.

Loislaw is a comprehensive online legal research product providing legal content to law firm practitioners of various specializations. Loislaw provides attorneys with the ability to quickly and efficiently find the necessary legal information they need, when and where they need it, by facilitating access to primary law as well as state-specific law, records, forms and treatises.

Best Case Solutions is the leading bankruptcy software product to the bankruptcy industry. It provides software and workflow tools to flawlessly streamline petition preparation and the electronic filing process, while timely incorporating ever-changing court requirements.

ftwilliam.com offers employee benefits professionals the highest quality plan documents (retirement, welfare and non-qualified) and government forms (5500/PBGC, 1099 and IRS) software at highly competitive prices.

MediRegs products provide integrated health care compliance content and software solutions for professionals in healthcare, higher education and life sciences, including professionals in accounting, law and consulting.

Wolters Kluwer Law & Business, a division of Wolters Kluwer, is headquartered in New York. Wolters Kluwer is a market-leading global information services company focused on professionals.

---

---

WOLTERS KLUWER LAW & BUSINESS SUPPLEMENT NOTICE

This product is updated on a periodic basis with supplements to reflect important changes in the subject matter. If you have purchased this product directly from Wolters Kluwer Law & Business, we have already recorded your subscription for the update service.

If, however, you purchased this product from a bookstore and wish to receive future updates and revised or related volumes billed separately with a 30-day examination review, please contact our Customer Service Department at 1-800-234-1660 or send your name, company name (if applicable), address, and the title of the product to:

Wolters Kluwer Law & Business
Distribution Center
7201 McKinney Circle
Frederick, MD 21704

---

Important Contact Information

- To order any title, go to www.aspenpublishers.com or call 1-800-638-8437.
- To reinstate your manual update service, call 1-800-638-8437.
- To contact Customer Service, e-mail customer.service@wolterskluwer.com, call 1-800-234-1660, fax 1-800-901-9075, or mail correspondence to: Order Department—Aspen Publishers, Wolters Kluwer Law & Business, PO Box 990, Frederick, MD 21705.
- To review your account history or pay an invoice online, visit www.aspenpublishers.com/payinvoices.

Wolters Kluwer
Law & Business

This publication is dedicated in memory of Mr. Dodd's late wife, Chong Suk Dodd (Mun Chong Suk) – January 30, 1960 – November 20, 2010.

이 책을 돌아가신 마이클씨의 아내 다드 정숙 (문정숙)에게 바칩니다 – 1960년 1월
30일 – 2010년 11월 20일.

ABOUT THE EDITORS

---

Michael David Dodd is a shareholder in the geotechnical and environmental consulting engineering firm, Shannon & Wilson, Inc. where he serves as the company's General Counsel. Mr. Dodd is active in: ASFE (formerly Associated Soil and Foundation Engineers) where he is the past chair of their Legal Affairs Committee and is a member of their Advocates Assembly; the American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC) where he is a member of their Legal Counsel Forum; XL Design Professional Insurance where he chairs the Design Professional Risk Control Group's (DPRCG) Legal Counsel Forum; and the American Council of Engineering Companies of Washington (ACEC Washington). Mr. Dodd represented the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), ASFE, and the National Society of Professional Engineers (NSPE) before the Washington State Supreme Court in a case upholding that state's statute of repose. Mr. Dodd is a regular speaker and author on loss prevention and legal liability issues facing design professionals. Mr. Dodd is admitted to all federal, state, and local courts in the State of Washington, the Supreme Court of the United States, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the United States Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces, the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims, the United States Court of Federal Claims, the United States Tax Court, and the United States Court of International Trade. Mr. Dodd resides in Seattle.

J. Duncan Findlay serves as General Counsel, Americas for GHD, an international network of engineers, architects and environmental scientists serving clients in the global markets of water, energy and resources, environment, property and buildings, and transportation. Mr. Findlay was previously Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for PB Telecom, Inc., a Seattle-based, multi-state telecommunications consulting engineering firm serving the infrastructure needs of the wireless industry. From 2002-2004 he was a vice president for Professional Service Industries, Inc., responsible for its operations in Washington State. Previously, he was a partner at Lane Powell in Seattle, where he focused his law practice on the business operations of design professionals, including professional liability, risk management, and contracting for the design and construction of large infrastructure projects. Prior to joining Lane Powell, Mr. Findlay served as the president, and previously for over 20 years, primarily in private practice, as general counsel for Shannon & Wilson, Inc., an internationally recognized consulting firm dedicated to providing geotechnical, environmental, and natural resource services. Mr. Findlay's activities in the design professional community include participation in ASFE, where he served for two years as Chair of its Legal Affairs Committee, and the American Counsel of Engineering Companies (ACEC). He was admitted to practice in 1973 and has been a frequent speaker on legal and managerial challenges facing the design professional community. Mr. Findlay and his wife Eileen reside in Phoenix.

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

---

Richard E. Alexander is a partner in the Portland, Oregon office of Stoel Rives LLP. He practices in the area of construction and design law, representing owners, prime contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, and design professionals on major construction projects. Mr. Alexander is a Fellow in the American College of Construction Lawyers and a member of the national Construction Group Advisory Board of the Construction Contracts Law Report. He is the co-editor of Construction Law (Oregon State Bar CLE) and its updates. He has lectured and authored extensively on construction and design law and is a panel member of the American Arbitration Association for mediation and arbitration of construction and design disputes.

Jeffrey L. Alitz is a shareholder in the firm Le Clair Ryan. He focuses his practice on the defense of professionals, including architects, engineers, surveyors, attorneys, and real estate brokers. He represents clients in federal and state courts, in both jury and non-jury cases, before arbitration panels, and in mediations in Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Mr. Alitz has extensive experience in the evaluation, analysis, and implementation of defenses to claims made against architects, engineers, and surveyors concerning construction projects that range from property boundary line determinations to large public and private construction projects. Mr. Alitz is admitted to both the Massachusetts and New Hampshire bars and in the United States District Courts for the Districts of Massachusetts and New Hampshire. He received a J.D. in 1987 from Boston University School of Law, and a B.A. in 1983 from the University of Vermont.

Hugh N. Anderson is a lawyer in Madison, Wisconsin. His practice consists primarily of construction and contract law. He regularly assists public and private project owners, architects, engineers, and contractors in the drafting of contract documents, the development of project delivery strategies, the establishment of insurance and risk management practices, and the resolution of disputes arising from bid errors, construction problems, professional errors and omissions, contractor default, and functional failures. Mr. Anderson serves as legal counsel to the Engineers Joint Contract Documents Committee. His work in construction law has been recognized in the current edition of Best Lawyers of America. He is a member of the American Bar Association Forum on the Construction Industry, and is a graduate of Stanford Law School.

Robert A. Anderson, a founding partner in the Boise law firm of Anderson, Julian & Hull LLP, practices in the areas of construction law and insurance defense litigation. A magna cum laude graduate of the University of Utah, Mr. Anderson received his J.D. from the University of Colorado at Boulder in 1977. Mr. Anderson is a frequent lecturer before a variety of professional groups, including the American Institute of Architects, American Society of Professional Engineers and the Structural Engineers Association of Idaho. Mr. Anderson has contributed to the Wiley and Aspen Construction Law Update. He has successfully defended a number of design professionals in a variety of jury trials and has achieved an “AV” rating from Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory. In addition, Mr. Anderson has been actively involved in a variety of construction-related arbitrations and mediations for over 25 years.

James F. Archibald, III is a partner in the Birmingham, Alabama office of Bradley Arant Boult Cummings, LLC, where his primary area of practice is construction litigation. A summa cum laude graduate of Emory University, he received his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he was a member of the Law Review and received the Order of the Coif. He is licensed to practice in all Alabama courts and various other courts around the country, including the United States Supreme Court. Mr. Archibald has represented owners, developers, general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, designers, and sureties. He frequently lectures on various aspects of construction and procurement law, including as an adjunct professor at the University of Alabama School of Law.

Robert F. Babcock is a principal of Babcock Scott & Babcock, PC in Salt Lake City, Utah where he concentrates his practice in the areas of construction law and litigation in both the public and private sectors. Mr. Babcock’s clients include various participants in the construction industry, such as contractors, design professionals, developers, sureties, suppliers, and owners. Mr. Babcock received a B.S. in civil engineering from Brigham Young University and a J.D., cum laude, from the J. Reuben Clark Law School of Brigham Young University. He is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Utah, the United States District Court for the District of Utah, the Ninth and Tenth United States Circuit Courts of Appeals, and the Federal Claims Court. He is a member of the Forum on the Construction Industry and the Public Contract Law Section of the American Bar Association. He also helped create and has served as president of the Construction Law Section of the Utah State Bar. He is a member of the Construction Industry Panel of Arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association including the panel for Large, Complex Cases. He is a founding member of and presently serves on the Utah Advisory Panel for the American Arbitration Association. He is also a member of the Mediation Panel of the American Arbitration Association. Mr. Babcock is a member of several national and state organizations relating to the construction industry and is a frequent author and contributor to construction publications and seminars.

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

---

Jerome V. Bales is a member in the Leawood, Kansas, office of Douthitt Frets Rouse Gentile & Rhodes, LLC, and is the head of the firm's Construction Practice Group. Mr. Bales earned his undergraduate degree from Rockhurst University, Kansas City, Missouri, in 1971 and was graduated with distinction from the University of Missouri at Kansas City Law School in 1974. He has over 38 years of experience handling construction claims, litigation, risk management, and contract negotiation. He also frequently serves as a mediator or arbitrator in disputes and is a member of the American Arbitration Association's Panel of Arbitrators and Panel of Mediators and its Construction Arbitration Master Panel (top 100 arbitrators in the U.S.). Mr. Bales frequently writes and speaks on construction issues and co-edited a book published in 2007 by the ABA Construction Forum, Construction Manager and Design Professional Liability. From 2004-2009, he served on the Steering Committee of Division 3 (Design) of the ABA Construction Forum.

Lisa A. Banick is a partner at Avignone, Banick & Williams, PLLC in Bozeman, Montana where she concentrates on litigation, construction law, business law, and real estate. Ms. Banick received a B.S. in civil engineering from the University of Virginia, and a J.D., magna cum laude, from New York Law School. A member of the New York, New Jersey, and Montana bars, she is also an associate member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. Ms. Banick has written and lectured about a variety of construction law topics.

Dennis J. Bartlett is the managing member of the Colorado law firm, Brosseau Bartlett Seserman, LLC and specializes in commercial litigation with an emphasis in construction and surety law. He graduated with honors from the University of Notre Dame with a B.B.A. in accounting in 1980 and from Notre Dame Law School with honors in 1985 where he was an editor of the Notre Dame Law Review. Dennis is admitted to all Colorado courts, the United States Bankruptcy and District Courts for Colorado and Nebraska, the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth and Tenth Circuits, and the United States Supreme Court. Dennis is an active member of the ABA Forum on the Construction Industry; the ABA Tort, Trial and Insurance Practice Section, Fidelity and Surety Law Committee (vice-chair); the Defense Research Institute; the National Bond Claims Association; the Surety Claims Institute; and the Rocky Mountain Surety Association. He regularly writes and lectures on matters and issues affecting the construction industry and represents developers, owners, design professionals, contractors, and sureties in construction matters.

Adrian L. Bastianelli, III is co-managing partner of the Washington, DC office of Peckar & Abramson, P.C. Mr. Bastianelli received his BSCE from Purdue

University and his Professional Engineer's license in Kentucky. He received a J.D. from the University of Louisville. Mr. Bastianelli worked as an engineer on claims for the Corps of Engineers, served as a law clerk for the U.S. Court of Claims, and has been in private practice specializing in construction and government contracts for more than 35 years. Mr. Bastianelli also has served as a mediator and arbitrator on over 300 disputes and has served on ten DRBs. He is a past chair of the ABA Forum on the Construction Industry, a Fellow in the American College of Construction Lawyer, a past president of the Washington Building Congress, and a former editor of The Journal of the American College of Construction Lawyers and The Construction Lawyer.

Stanton Phillip Beck is a member of the Board of Directors and chairman of the Construction Services Group at Lane Powell PC. He received his engineering and law degrees from the University of Washington, where he graduated with honors and served as editor of the Washington Law Review. Stan serves as panel counsel for owners, design firms, insurers and product manufacturers, as well as for numerous professional organizations and societies. He has been involved in most of the major construction projects in the Pacific Northwest as well as in complex product liability actions for numerous product manufacturers and is nationally recognized for his work. He devotes his practice, along with the members of his group, to representation of insurers, product manufacturers, owners, architects and engineers, including counseling concerning all aspects affecting development and the construction industry.

Karl A. Berg, Jr. is a shareholder of the Colorado Springs firm, Mulliken Weiner Berg & Jolivet, P.C. His practice is primarily devoted to construction law and litigation matters for clients, including both public and private owners, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, architects, and engineers. He is involved in construction contract drafting, review, and negotiation. He litigates and arbitrates disputes, including claims based on construction defects, delay, non-payment, and changes. He is also experienced with respect to claims against performance and payment bonds. Mr. Berg was admitted to the bar in Colorado in 1990. He received his B.A. from the University of Michigan in 1986 and his J.D. from Thomas M. Cooley Law School, magna cum laude, in 1990. He is the author of several articles on construction law matters, including Clairvoyance Required: The Architect's Liability for Construction Cost Estimates, 26 Colo. Law. 37 (April 1997). He is the contributing author for Colorado to State-by-State Guide to Architect, Engineer, and Contractor Licensing (S. Walker, R. Holderness & S. Butler eds., 1999). He also wrote chapters on licensing and construction disputes for The Practitioner's Guide to Colorado Construction Law (R. Benson ed., 1999). Mr. Berg is also a frequent speaker on construction-related issues.

Jay M. Berger is a member in the Detroit, Michigan office of Clark Hill PLC. He practices in the areas of construction law and commercial contract disputes. He has represented both public and private owners, design professionals, general contractors, and subcontractors/suppliers in matters ranging from defect, delay, disruption, acceleration, and unforeseen site condition claims, including extensive work in surety, insurance and lien law. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the American Bar Association (including the Forum on the Construction Industry). Mr. Berger is a frequent lecturer and author for construction-related topics and issues, including the lead and coordinating author of the Michigan Construction Law Manual, a comprehensive treatise covering Michigan construction law.

Keith J. Bergeron is a partner at Deutsch, Kerrigan & Stiles, where he is a member of the Construction Litigation Department. He joined the firm in 1999. His practice involves all aspects of construction and construction surety law, but particularly design professional malpractice issues. Before practicing law, Mr. Bergeron worked as a mechanical engineer for Chevron Pipeline Company, concentrating on design, procurement, and project management issues on various Gulf of Mexico onshore and offshore oil and gas projects. Mr. Bergeron received a B.S. in mechanical engineering from the University of New Orleans in 1991 and a law degree from Loyola University in 1998. While in law school, he was a member of the Loyola Law Review.

Eric H. Biesecker practices with the firm of Nexsen Pruet PLLC in its Greensboro offices. Mr. Biesecker regularly represents contractors, subcontractors, and suppliers on all phases of their business, including best practices, contract drafting and formation, bidding requirements, trials, and arbitrations. He is the 2012 chairman of the national Attorneys' Council for the American Subcontractors Association and is chapter counsel for the Triad chapter of the American Subcontractors Association of the Carolinas. He also serves on the Legislative Committee for the Associated Builders and Contractors of the Carolinas, and on the Suppliers Council of the Carolinas Associated General Contractors. Mr. Biesecker was named among North Carolina's "Legal Elite" in 2008, 2009, and 2012. He was named as a "Rising Star" in the 2010 list of North Carolina Super Lawyers®. He has lectured and written extensively on dozens of construction and real estate industry topics.

Dean R. Brackenridge is a member in the Indianapolis, Indiana office of Frost Brown Todd LLC. He focuses his practice on business, construction, environmental, and real estate matters. The construction clients he represents include general contractors, engineers, architects, and surveyors. Dean holds leadership positions in professional and community organizations. He currently serves as the chair-elect of the Indiana State Bar Association's Construction and Surety Law Section.

Terrence L. Brennan is a partner and head of the Construction Litigation Department at Deutsch, Kerrigan & Stiles. His practice is devoted primarily to the areas of construction and construction surety law. He is actively engaged in representing owners, architects, engineers, surveyors, contractors, suppliers, and building construction sureties. He has extensive experience in alternative dispute resolution methods and procedures. Mr. Brennan received a bachelor of architecture degree from Kansas State University in 1976 and a law degree from the University of Kansas in 1979. He was admitted to practice in Louisiana in 1979.

Jeffrey S. Brenner is a litigation partner in the Providence, Rhode Island office of Nixon Peabody LLP. He is the team leader for the firm's Real Estate Litigation Team and Construction Group. He concentrates his practice on construction, land use matters, zoning issues, and complex real estate, commercial, and land use litigation. Mr. Brenner received his B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania and his J.D. from American University. While in law school, Mr. Brenner was a member of the American University Law Review and served as its managing editor during 1989-1990. He also served as a law clerk to the Rhode Island Supreme Court during 1990-1991. Mr. Brenner is admitted to practice law in Rhode Island and Massachusetts, the United States District Courts in Rhode Island and Massachusetts, and the First Circuit Court of Appeals. From 1992-2004, Mr. Brenner was a member of the Zoning Board of Review in Barrington, Rhode Island and was its chairman from 1998-2004. He was a member of the Barrington Town Council from 2004-2012, president of the Council from 2004-2008, and vice president of the Council from 2008-2012. Mr. Brenner has been listed in Chambers USA as a leading litigation attorney since 2008, has been named Rhode Island Super Lawyer® since 2010, and has been named a litigation star in Benchmark Litigation since 2011. In addition to this publication, Mr. Brenner has been the author of the Rhode Island Chapter for Aspen's State-By-State Guide to Construction Contracts and Claims since 2006, the American Bar Association's Property Tax Deskbook since 2008, and the Commercial Finance Association's Compendium of Commercial Finance Law since 1998.

Terrence L. Brookie is a member in the Indianapolis, Indiana office of Frost Brown Todd LLC. He concentrates his practice in the areas of construction and surety law. He is also a mediator and arbitrator of construction and commercial disputes, and is admitted to practice in both the state of Indiana and federal courts. Terry is a Fellow of the American College of Construction Lawyers. In addition, he has been named to The Best Lawyers in America® and Indiana Super Lawyers® for his work in Construction Law. He is the chair-elect the ABA Forum on the Construction Industry Governing Committee. He is a frequent presenter and author on various construction law topics.

John K. Broussard, Jr. is an associate at Beirne, Maynard & Parsons LLP and represents clients in a wide variety of litigation, including trial and appellate experience in construction matters. Mr. Broussard has been recognized as a “Texas Rising Star” by Texas Monthly and Law & Politics magazines. Mr. Broussard is a 2004 graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, and he received his B.A. in Economics and Computer Applications from the University of Notre Dame in 1999.

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

---

Amanda B. Buffinton is a shareholder and board certified construction law attorney with Bush Ross, P.A., in Tampa, Florida. Her practice focuses primarily on the area of professional liability defense of architects and engineers in construction disputes. Ms. Buffinton received her B.A. in Economics, summa cum laude, from Bellarmine University in Louisville, Kentucky in 1999, where she was a member of the Bellarmine mock trial team that won the Collegiate American Mock Trial National Championship. In 2002, Ms. Buffinton earned her J.D., cum laude, from Stetson University College of Law in St. Petersburg, Florida, as well as her M.B.A. from Stetson University. During law school, Ms. Buffinton was a member of the moot court team. Ms. Buffinton is permitted to practice in Florida and the United States District Courts for the Northern, Middle, and Southern Districts of Florida. She is a member of the American Bar Association Forum on Construction Law. In 2005, Ms. Buffinton published an article entitled, “Women in the Legal Profession: Taking Advantage of Our Differences,” which appears in “The 101 Practice Series: Breaking Down the Basics” published by the American Bar Association in 2008. She has provided presentations on design professional liability issues to local chapters of Women in Architecture and the Florida Structural Engineers Association. Ms. Buffinton is also a member of the Construction Law Committee of the Florida Bar Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Division. She is a graduate of the Leadership Tampa Class of 2011. She has been recognized as a “Rising Star” by Florida Super Lawyers magazine and as an “Up and Coming Legal Elite” honoree in Florida Trend’s 2012 Florida Legal Elite publication. Ms. Buffinton has been awarded an AV rating by Martindale-Hubbell.

Stephen F. Buterin is a partner with the law firm of Coleman, Hull & van Vliet, PLLP, who concentrates his practice primarily in the areas of construction and business litigation. He received his undergraduate degree from Gustavus Adolphus College, and his law degree from Hamline University School of Law, where he served on the Hamline Law Review. Following law school, he clerked for the Minnesota Court of Appeals, and was an attorney-instructor at the University of Minnesota Law School. He is a member of the Construction Law Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association, and the former chair of the Appellate Practice Section.

David J. Butzer is a partner with McManus Darden & Felsen LLP in Washington, D.C., and practices in the areas of construction and government contracts law. Mr. Butzer is admitted to practice in the State of Maryland, the Commonwealth of Virginia, the District of Columbia, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, and the United States Court of Federal Claims. Mr. Butzer graduated magna cum laude from George Mason University School of Law where he was associate editor of the George Mason Law Review. Following law school, Mr. Butzer served as a law clerk to Judge Diane Gilbert Sybolt of the United States Court of Federal Claims.

Michael J. Byrne is a partner in the firm of Gogick, Byrne & O'Neill, LLP. His practice, and that of his firm, is limited to construction law. He is admitted to practice in all state and federal courts in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut. He is a professional affiliate member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and ASFE.

Sean R. Calvert is a partner in Calvert Menicucci, PC where he practices exclusively in the areas of construction and intellectual property law. He received his B.A. and J.D., with certificate in high technology, from Santa Clara University. He is a member of the New Mexico State Bar, California State Bar, and American Bar Associations (Intellectual Property Law, Government Contracts, and Forum on the Construction Industry), and the American Intellectual Property Law Association. Mr. Calvert has been published on various copyright and construction issues and is a frequent lecturer on construction and technology topics to the bar and judiciary.

Gunther O. Carrle is a founding principal of Powell, Trachtman, Logan, Carrle & Lombardo, PC where his practice is limited to the representation of architects and engineers. His practice focuses on assisting design professionals with their risk management efforts including development of standard and project specific contracts, professional licensing issues, creation of business entities for multi-jurisdiction practice and defense of malpractice claims. Currently his practice concentrates on assisting design firms who wish to expand their practices to include an international market. Mr. Carrle is a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute where he earned an M. Engr., with a concentration in structural engineering, in 1977. He received his J.D. in 1980 from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Mr. Carrle served in the U.S. Army Judge Advocates General Corps until 1984 when he returned to the private practice of law. He serves on the boards of various design professional groups and is a frequent lecturer for the design community. He is co-chair of Powell, Trachtman's Design Professionals' Practice Group. Mr. Carrle is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Gregory L. Cashion is a founding partner of Smith Cashion & Orr, PLC where he devotes his practice to construction law and litigation. Mr. Cashion earned his B.S. in civil engineering, magna cum laude, from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. He is a Registered Professional Engineer in the state of Tennessee and a LEED® AP. He earned his J.D. from the University of Tennessee School of Law.

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

---

Mr. Cashion is currently a member of the Nashville, Tennessee, and American Bar Associations (Construction Law Forum). He is also a member of the National Society of Professional Engineers and the Tennessee Society of Professional Engineers. He is a board member of the Tennessee Association of Construction Council. Mr. Cashion is an adjunct professor for Vanderbilt University School of Engineering. He teaches “Construction Law and Contract” as a part of the construction management graduate program. Mr. Cashion often lectures on construction law. He has authored numerous publications on construction law and litigation.

James L. Csontos is a partner of the Phoenix, Arizona firm of Jennings, Haug & Cunningham, LLP, where he practices in the firm’s Surety and Construction Litigation Section. He is a graduate of Arizona State University (B.S., magna cum laude, 1982 and J.D., cum laude, 1986). Mr. Csontos has written or contributed to numerous construction-related publications including the national publications of Fifty State Construction Lien and Bond Law, Second Edition (Arizona Chapter), Aspen Publishers, 2000 and annual supplements and State-by-State Guide to Architect, Engineer, and Contractor Licensing, Second Edition (Arizona Chapter), Aspen Publishers, 2012 and annual supplements. Mr. Csontos is a member of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Arizona, Construction Law Section (Executive Council 1998-2003, Chairman 2001-2002).

Michael W. Currie is general counsel for Kokosing Construction Company, Inc. Prior to joining Kokosing, Mr. Currie was a partner at a Columbus, Ohio law firm, where he was a member of the firm’s construction practice group. Mr. Currie has extensive experience in public and private construction law, real estate law, and commercial and construction litigation. He has represented architects, engineers, public and private owners, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, and sureties in bidding, construction, and post-acceptance construction disputes.

John W. Davidson is a member of Nexsen Pruet, LLC, in Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Davidson holds degrees from Wofford College (1992) and the University of South Carolina School of Law (1995). He practices in the areas of construction law and complex commercial litigation.

Craig C. Dirrim joined Woods & Aitken in 1994 and is a partner with an emphasis in construction law, bid protests, and commercial litigation. He has represented owners, architects, contractors, subcontractors, taxpayers, vendors, and suppliers. His practice focuses on alternative dispute resolution, commercial litigation, construction law, and renewable energy. He earned a B.S. from the University of Nebraska and a J.D. from its law school, where he was executive editor of the law review. He is a member of the Nebraska State Bar Association and the Lincoln Bar Association as well as the Associated General Contractors. Mr. Dirrim has been a presenter at several construction-related seminars, and he