The Author

Paul Ward was born on 25 June 1965, in Somerset, England. He studied law at University College Dublin, where he graduated with a BCL in 1989. He continued his legal studies at the Honourable Society of King's Inns from where he graduated in 1989 as a qualified barrister and was called to the Irish Bar. Paul then studied for a master's degree at London School of Economics and Political Science, where he graduated with a LL.M. (European Studies) in 1991. He practised as a barrister at the Irish Bar for a number of years before joining the Faculty of Law at University College Dublin in 1992.

Since 1992, Paul has held the academic posts of Assistant Lecturer (1991–1996) and College Lecturer (1996–2005). He is currently a Senior Lecturer. Paul is also a member of the Law Society of Ireland Child Law Reform Group. He has published domestically and internationally on family law and child law issues.
