Private International Law in Costa Rica

The Author

Juan José Obando Peralta was born in San José, Costa Rica in 1978. He earned his JD degree in Law at Universidad De La Salle, Costa Rica in 2000. He holds two Masters degrees from Universidad Interamericana de Costa Rica as well as Universidad de Murcia, Spain, both in the field of Private International Law. He has also made post-graduate courses at The Hague Academy of International Law as well as Universidad de Salamanca, Spain, also on the field of Private International Law. Mr Obando is a professor of Private International Law as well as Internet Law in three universities (Universidad de Costa Rica, Universidad Latina and Universidad De La Salle) in Costa Rica both at the graduate and post-graduate level. Prof. Obando is also a registered arbitrator at the Centre for Conciliation and Arbitration of the Costa Rican Chamber of Commerce. He has been a visiting fellow at the Max Planck Institute of Comparative and International Private Law in Hamburg, Germany and also a visiting professor at the same institution. Prof. Obando is the author of several articles and is currently a Board member of the American Association of Private International Law (ASADIP). He is also the Research Director on Sistema de Integración Centroamericana (Central American Integration System) (hereafter SICA) studies for ASADIP. Prof. Obando is a founding member and Secretary General for the Central American and Caribbean Academy of Private International Law (ACECADIP).
