Preface

This book could not have been written without the support of others. Warmest thanks to Professor Graham Penn of Sidley LLP for generosity with materials and without whom the book could not have been written in its current form. Thanks also to Professor Philip Wood and Richard Bethell-Jones of Allen & Overy together with Charles Proctor and Karen Birch of Bird & Bird whose advice was of great help. Thanks also to Professor Roger Gregory and Dr Peter Yeoh for advice and insight. Finally, thanks to the Loan Markets Association for the right to reproduce the Agreement found in the Appendix to this book.

The aim of this text is to provide practitioners, academics, bankers and students alike with a text that covers the range of legal issues that arise in international banking and capital market transactions. It does not cover the regulatory issues on which I have written another text, but focuses on the legal issues relating to the commercial activities of the international banking sector. It can be read through or relevant chapters or parts thereof dipped into.

It is customary to complete a preface with a disclaimer for others with words to the effect that any mistakes in the text are mine alone. It is only on completion of writing something like this that the full weight of the expression is apparent.
