Acknowledgments

First, I want to thank three people who worked almost as hard on this project as I did: my husband Stewart Paley (who is essentially my co-author), my wonderful colleague Frederick Hart, and my tireless assistant, Gloria Ortiz. All three read several prior drafts of the book.

I am also indebted to the University of New Mexico School of Law and to Dean Suellen Scarnecchia for their invaluable financial and moral support. I also thank Sunne Spicer and Melissa Lobato for their excellent word processing and editorial support and Janet Roupas for her computer finesse.

I am especially grateful to my student editors, who were in charge of “student appeal.” They include Michael Plante, Richard Moran, and Jennifer Breakell (UNM School of Law, JD 2004), Leigh Haynes, (UNM School of Law, JD expected 2007), and Benjamin Cross, Caitlin DiMotta, and William (Scott) Jaworski (UNM School of Law, JD 2006). Finally, I thank Eric Holt and Christie Rears of Aspen for their gracious support throughout the editorial process.
