PREFACE

This selection of corporation and partnership statutes, rules, and forms is intended to supplement casebooks and other teaching materials for courses in business organizations (including advanced courses on mergers, acquisition and reorganizations) and contains only the text of the act or statute that normally would be used in a business associations course.

Frequent revisions are planned not only to maintain the materials on a current basis but to better serve the needs of teachers and students in the subject matter areas. Suggestions of users and prospective users are requested. All will be carefully considered.

Suggestions received from casebook authors and teachers have been greatly appreciated. We have attempted to include as many as possible. The size of this supplement is evidence of our inclusion of these ideas.

We would like to thank Sarah Jeffries Johnson, University of Arizona College of Law '95, and the staffs of the Georgetown University Law Center and George Washington University National Law Center libraries for their considerable assistance in preparing the materials for this volume.

Further, we would like to acknowledge The American Bar Foundation and Law and Business, Inc. for their permission to use selected Official Comments to The Revised Model Business Corporation Act. Acknowledgment is also made to the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws for permission to reproduce the official Text and Comments for the Uniform Partnership Act, the Revised Uniform Partnership Act, the Uniform Limited Partnership Act and the Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act.

§ 1.25 Filing Duty of Secretary of State

(a) If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the requirements of section 1.20, the secretary of state shall file it.

(b) The secretary of state files a document by stamping or otherwise endorsing "Filed," together with his name and official title and the date and time of receipt, on both the original and the document copy and on the receipt for the filing fee. After filing a document, except as provided in sections 5.03 and 15.10, the secretary of state shall deliver the document copy, with the filing fee receipt (or acknowledgement of receipt if no fee is required) attached, to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative.

(c) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, he shall return it to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative within five days after the document was delivered, together with a brief, written explanation of the reason for his refusal.

(d) The secretary of state's duty to file documents under this section is ministerial. His filing or refusing to file a document does not:

(1) affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or part;

(2) relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document;

(3) create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

§ 1.26 Appeal From Secretary of State's Refusal to File Document

(a) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document delivered to his office for filing, the domestic or foreign corporation may appeal the refusal to the [name or describe] court [of the county where the corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is or will be located] [of $_____ county]. The appeal is commenced by petitioning the court to compel filing the document and by attaching to the petition the document and the secretary of state's explanation of his refusal to file.

(b) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

(c) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

§ 1.27 Evidentiary Effect of Copy of Filed Document

(5) that articles of dissolution have not been filed; and
