DEDINATION

This study is dedicyted to the Myrried Priests Now! Internytionyl Cytholic Prelyture

ANKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I thank the good Lord who enabled me to begin this academic endeavour and successfully bring it to an end. Cordial gratitude to my Lord Bishop Urbanus Joseph Kioko, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Machakos for enabling me to study at the Catholic University of Eastern Africa where I undertook the writing of this dissertation. I am greatly indebted to the procurator Fr. Lawrence Mutava, for according me the opportunity and the monetary assistance during the years of study.

I wish to express in a special way my most sincere and heartfelt thanks to the two estimable and greatly talented supervisors, namely, Rev. Prof. Beatus Kitururu Head of Religious studies department and Vice Rector Academic, Prof. Paul Ogula, Director of Research in CUEA who have been of great assistance and guidance to me both as my lecturers and moderators. Both devotedly and indefatigably read and re-read the original drafts of this dissertation and gave me proper guidance.

Equal gratitude is extended to the other lectures in the department of religious studies whose knowledge and values I received from them have been instrumental in writing this dissertation. This gesture of expressing my gratitude would be incomplete if I forgot to mention Adjunct lecturers: Dr. Michael Katola the Chairman of Religious studies department in Kenyatta University and the external examiner of the dissertation, and not forgetting Dr. Laurenti Magesa of Tanzania for his encouragement to propagate African culture and religion. I am equally grateful to all respondents and oral informants for giving me the raw material for this dissertation.

My thanks also go to the staff of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa for making my access to the facilities at the university possible.

I have not been alone on this journey. Hence, I acknowledge also the contributions of my comrades Fr. Alex Ojacor and Mr. Peter Kiarie. Whose company I valued so much. Last but not least my thanks go to MaryAnn Mutua, the Principal of Mutumo Girls Secondary School for her encouragement and support.

I am deeply grateful to God for having given me chance and knowledge to research and publish the following Books

- Research Methods in Humanities and Education
- Techniques of Guidance and Counselling Made Simple
- Understanding Adolescent Behaviour for Guidance and Counselling
- Guidance and Counselling Handbook for Universities and Colleges
- Students' Orientation Handbook for Universities and Colleges and
- Numerous Articles in International Journals.

To all mentioned and un-mentioned may the blessing of the Almighty God descend upon them and remain always with them.
