

Ethics, Law and Society

Volume V

Edited by
Nicky Priaulx
and Anthony Wrigley

Ethics, Law and Society

Volume V

Edited by

NICKY PRIAULX

Cardiff Law School, Cardiff University, UK

and

ANTHONY WRIGHT
Keele University, UK

ASHGATE

© Nicky Priaulx and Anthony Wrigley, and the contributors 2013

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise without the prior permission of the publisher.

Nicky Priaulx and Anthony Wrigley have asserted their right under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act, 1988, to be identified as the editors of this work.

Published by
Ashgate Publishing Limited
Wey Court East
Union Road
Farnham
Surrey, GU9 7PT
England

Ashgate Publishing Company
110 Cherry Street
Suite 3-1
Burlington, VT 05401-3818
USA

www.ashgate.com

British Library Cataloguing in Publication Data

Ethics, law and society.

Volume V.

1. Professional ethics. 2. Law and ethics. 3. Bioethics.

4. Social ethics. 5. Human rights.

I. Priaulx, Nicolette, 1973- II. Wrigley, Anthony.

III. Cardiff Centre for Ethics, Law & Society.

174-dc23

Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Ethics, law and society / edited by Nicky Priaulx and Anthony Wrigley

p. cm.

Includes bibliographical references and index.

ISBN 978-1-4094-1916-7

1. Applied ethics. 2. Law. 3. Civilization. I. Priaulx, Nicky. II. Wrigley, Anthony.

BJ1581.2.E85 2005

170--dc22

2005007351

ISBN: 9781409419167 (hbk)

ISBN: 9781409419174 (ebk – PDF)

ISBN: 9781409471462 (ebk – ePUB)

Printed and bound in Great Britain by the MPG Books Group, UK.

ETHICS, LAW AND SOCIETY

Dedicated to
Dr Jenny Gunning (1944–2010)

List of Contributors

Professor Michèle Alexandre is an Associate Professor at the University of Mississippi School of Law. She is a graduate of Colgate University and Harvard Law School. Her teaching areas include international law, civil rights law, disability law, gender and the law and constitutional law. Professor Alexandre has published law review articles and book chapters on global gender/race issues in the Washington and Lee Law Review, the Duke Journal of Gender Law and Policy, the UCLA Chicano/a-Latino/a Law Review, the Hastings Women Law Journal, the Oxford Round Table's Forum on Public Policy, the Boston College of Environmental Affairs Law Review, the William and Mary Journal of Women and the Law, the American University Journal of Gender, Social Policy and the Law, the UMKC Law Review and the University of Pennsylvania Journal of Law and Social Change. In addition to her present contribution, she has published book chapters in Law, Property and Society (Carolina Academic Press, 2009), Race to Injustice: Lessons Learned from the Duke University Lacrosse Players' Rape Case (Ashgate, 2008) and Transcending the Boundaries of Law (Routledge, 2011). Professor Alexandre is currently working on a book entitled Sexploitation from the Newsroom to the Courtroom: Investigating Sexual Profiling in American Society.

Dr Sonia Allan is a Senior Lecturer in Law at Deakin University, Australia. She was a Senior Fellow and lecturer at the University of Melbourne, Australia from 2003 to 2011; and a Global Health Law Fellow at Georgetown University Law Center, Washington D.C. 2011–2012. Dr Allan has worked in both the public and private mental health and legal sectors, and is an expert on the regulation of assisted reproduction and research involving human embryos and cloning. She is widely published in these areas, and has contributed to a number of major Australian federal and state government inquiries on these matters. In 2011, Dr Allan was awarded a Winston Churchill Fellowship to fund a cross-jurisdictional study on regulatory aspects of non-anonymous gamete/embryo donation. Dr Allan was special guest editor for the Journal of Law and Medicine 19(4) 2012 edition on issues concerning information release to donor-conceived individuals. She is also currently writing a book for Ashgate which will provide a comparative analysis of the regulation of assisted reproductive technologies.

Susan B. Boyd is a Professor in the Faculty of Law, University of British Columbia, Canada. She holds the research Chair in Feminist Legal Studies and has published widely in the fields of family law and feminist legal studies, as well as on legal education and same sex partnerships. Her current research lies primarily in the fields of child custody law, legal parenthood and maternal autonomy. Her books include Child Custody, Law, and Women's Work (Oxford University Press, 2003), Reaction and Resistance: Feminism, Law, and Social Change (UBC Press, 2007), and Law and Families (Ashgate, 2006).

Scott Burris is a Professor of Law and Public Health at Temple University, Philadelphia USA. He directs the Public Health Law Research Program of the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, which supports scientific research on the influence of laws and legal practices on public health. He is the author of over 100 books, book chapters, articles and reports on issues including urban health, HIV/AIDS, research ethics, global health governance, and the health effects of criminal law and drug policy.

Ruth Chadwick is Director of the ESRC (Economic and Social Sciences Research Council) Centre for Economic and Social Aspects of Genomics (Cesagen), Cardiff University, UK. She also holds a Link Chair between Cardiff Law School and the School of English, Communication and Philosophy (ENCAP). She has co-ordinated a number of projects funded by the European Commission, including the EUROSCREEN projects and co-edits the journal Bioethics and the online journal Genomics, Society and Policy. She is Chair of the Human Genome Organisation Committee on Ethics, Law and Society, and has served as a member of several policy-making and advisory bodies, including the Panel of Eminent Ethical Experts of the Food and Agriculture Organisation of the United Nations (FAO), and the UK Advisory Committee on Novel Foods and Processes (ACNFP). She was editor-in-chief of the award winning Encyclopedia of Applied Ethics (1998), of which a second edition has now been published (2011). She is an Academician of the Academy of Social Sciences and a Fellow of the Hastings Center, New York; of the Society of Biology; of the Royal Society of Arts; and of the Royal Society of Medicine. In 2005 she was the winner of the World Technology Network Award for Ethics for her work on the relationship between scientific developments and ethical frameworks.

Dr Karen Devine LLB, PhD is a Lecturer in the Law School, University of Kent, UK. She teaches in the area of law and medical ethics and the law of obligations and her research interests lay in medical negligence, in particular the relationship between legal obligations and bodily integrity, and the role of informed consent. She was the winner of the Oxford University Press Law Teacher of the Year National Award 2012. Karen has published a number of articles in her specialist area of umbilical cord blood stem cells as well as broader socio-legal work. These include, Devine, K. (2010) Risky business? The risks and benefits of umbilical cord blood collection. Medical Law Review 18(3), 330–362; Devine, K. (2010) Tying the cord around the midwife's neck: the problem with cord blood collection. Journal of Professional Negligence 26(2), 83–85; Devine, K. (2012) How should tort be taught? Utilizing expertise and telling tales in an innovative law curriculum, in C Hunter (ed.) Integrating Socio-Legal Studies into the Law Curriculum (Palgrave Macmillan UK) 121–140.

Julie Doughty LLB (Bristol), PhD (Cardiff) is a Lecturer in Law at Cardiff Law School, Cardiff University, UK. She has previously worked as a high-street solicitor and in statutory children's services which represent children's interests in family court proceedings. Her research interests are family justice systems, social work, children's rights, theories of privacy and media law. She has published a number of articles in family law, including: From Court Missionaries to Conflict Resolution: a century of family court welfare. Child and Family Law Quarterly. 20(2) (2008) 131–154 and Opening up the Family Courts – what happened to children's rights? Contemporary Issues in Law. 10(1) (2010) 50–75. She has a particular interest in the privacy rights of children and young people and was a member of the fieldwork team which conducted interviews for The Views of Children and Young People Regarding Press Access to Family Courts (J Brophy, Office of the Children's Commissioner — England, 2010). While contributing to a range of programmes at Cardiff Law School, Julie's specialist research interests strongly inform the LLM Module she developed and now delivers – the Child and the State: Law and Policy.

Veronica English is Head of Medical Ethics at the British Medical Association where she has worked since 1994. She provides advice and guidance to doctors, as well as contributing to the development of public policy. Veronica has led the BMA's work on the human tissue legislation throughout the UK and on the regulation of this area of practice.

Natasha Hammond-Browning LLB, LLM, PhD is currently a Research Associate at the Centre for Ethics in Medicine at the University of Bristol working on the project 'Ethics in Public Policy Making: The Case of Human Enhancement' funded by the EC under FP7 Science in Society programme (Grant number 266660). Natasha previously held the post of Graduate Teaching Assistant at Cardiff Law School, Cardiff University where she completed her PhD in 2009 on 'Legal and moral aspects of human embryonic stem cell research'. Natasha's research interests include stem cells, human reproduction and genetics, bioethics, stem cell banking and reform. Natasha is an associate member of the Cardiff Centre for Ethics Law and Society and Cesagen and reviewer for Bioethics and the Medical Law Review. Natasha is also the legal secretary for the Wales Medico-Legal Society. Recent publications include, Hammond-Browning, N. Stem cell research in California: Problems with proposition 71: Can lessons be learnt from the United Kingdom? Contemporary Issues in Law 9(3) September 2009. Hammond-Browning, N. and Holm, S. Hybrid embryos – law, ethic and rhetoric, in A.V. Campbell and B.J. Capps (eds) Contested Cells: Global Perspectives on the Stem Cell Debate, (Imperial College Press, 2010).

Tom Hayes LLB (Hons), MSc is a Graduate Teaching Assistant in Cardiff Law School. He is currently writing his doctoral thesis which examines the development of the consent process using Foucault's work on governmentality. He has worked as a Technical Assistant for the Cardiff Centre for Ethics Law and Society (CCELS) and published a paper 'Just Between You and Me (and the Public Interest)' with the Centre in 2009. Recently Tom has presented papers at the Centre for Economic and Social Aspects of Genomics (CESAGEN) in Cardiff, UK and the Centre for Ethics in Medicine (CfEiM) in the University of Bristol (by invitation). In June 2012 Tom will deliver a paper at the Law and Society Association Conference entitled 'To Each, Their Island: A Governmental Take on the Growth of Autonomy in Medical Law'. Tom currently teaches criminal law in Cardiff Law School and has also taught at the, Institute of Medical Genetics in Cardiff University and at the CfEiM in the University of Bristol.

Kirsty Horsey is a Lecturer in the Law School, University of Kent, UK. She is author, with Erika Rackley of Tort Law (Oxford University Press, 2nd edn, 2011) and on the editorial board of Feminist Legal Studies.

Søren Holm BA, MA, MD, PhD, DrMedSci is a Danish medical doctor and philosopher. He was the Director of the Cardiff Centre for Social Ethics and Policy from 2004 to 2009 and is currently the Director of the Centre for Social Ethics and Policy at the University of Manchester. He also holds a part-time Chair in Medical Ethics at the Centre for Medical Ethics, University of Oslo. He counts himself lucky to have been a friend of Jenny Gunning.

Joanna Latimer is a Professor of Sociology at Cardiff University School of Social Science and the ESRC Centre for the Economic and Social Aspects of Genomics (Cesagen). She has published widely on the political, cultural and existential dimensions of medical knowledge, technology and the organization of health care, including Unknowing Bodies (Wiley-Blackwell, 2009) and at the leading edge of contemporary social theory, including The Politics of Imagination (The Sociological Review). Her new book on the new genetics and medical power, The Gene, The Clinic and The Family: Diagnosing Dysmorphology, Reviving Medical Power, will be published by Routledge in 2012. Joanna is currently engaged in an ethnography of aging and biology.

Robin Mackenzie is the Director of Medical Law and Ethics at the University of Kent. She has published research applying critical and feminist perspectives to emerging biotechnologies, neuroethics, neurodiversity, autism, ethico-political relations between species, psychoactive substances, addiction, robotics, health technologies, neurorehabilitation, emotionality in decision-making capacity assessment, disability theory, transableism, reprogenetics, end of life issues, enhancing empathy and callous unemotional traits. She has taught law in England, Scotland and New Zealand.

Maria Puig de la Bellacasa teaches at the School of Management, University of Leicester. Her current work focuses on question of ethics and politics in scientific practices and technoscientific imaginaries. She is also interested in the production of alternative forms of knowing and organizing in social movements, such as everyday practices of ecological care. Recent publications include (2011) Matters of care in technoscience. Assembling neglected things. Social Studies of Science. 41(1); (2010) Ethical doings in naturecultures, ethics, place and environment. A Journal of Philosophy and Geography. 13(2); a co-edited special issue (2008) Re-tooling technologies: exploring the possible through feminist science studies, Subjectivity Journal, 28.

Bernadette Richards is a Senior Lecturer at the Law School, University of Adelaide. Bernadette's research focus sits at the nexus of ethics and the law in the context of medical treatment, with a particular emphasis on consent to medical treatment. She is the co-author of Tort Law in Principle, (5th edn, Lawbook Co, 2009), and co-editor of Issues at the Borders of Life (ATF, 2010). She also contributed to Health Law in Australia (eds Ben White, Fiona McDonald and Lindy Willmott, Lawbook Co, 2010) and is an Associate Editor of the Journal of Bioethical Inquiry and a committee member of Australian Association of Bioethics and Health Law (AABHL).

Neil Stephens PhD is an ESRC Centre for the Economic and Social Aspects of Genomics (Cesagen) Research Fellow at Cardiff University School of Social Sciences. He is a sociologist and ethnographer with research interests including stem cell and cancer tissue biobanking, tissue engineered meat, and 'Capoeira' the Afro-Brazilian dance form. Recent publications have featured in Social Studies of Science, Regenerative Medicine and Scripted: A Journal of Law, Technology and Society.

Matthew Weait is Professor of Law and Policy in the School, of Law at Birkbeck College, University of London, UK. His research centres on the impact of law on people living with HIV and AIDS. He is the author of Intimacy and Responsibility: The Criminalisation of HIV Transmission (Routledge, 2007), and has worked as an advisor to UNAIDS, WHO and, most recently, the Global Commission on HIV and the Law.

Ethics, Law and Society Volume V

Editorial Team

Matteo Fabbretti BA (Spanish and Japanese), MA (Translation Studies) is an Editorial Assistant on the Ethics, Law and Society Collection, Volume V, and is a Translation Studies PhD candidate at Cardiff University. He is particularly interested in issues surrounding contemporary translation practices. His current research focuses on amateur translation groups operating in the wider context of the financially disinterested open source movement online. He is currently volunteering with drop-in centre for refugees and asylum seekers in Cardiff.

Nicky Priaux LLB, PhD, FRSA is Co-Editor of Ethics, Law and Society Volume V (Ashgate, 2012) and a Reader in the Law School, Cardiff University, UK. She is author of The Harm Paradox: Tort Law and the Unwanted Child in an Era of Choice (Routledge-Cavendish, 2007) and Director of the Cardiff Centre for Ethics, Law & Society at Cardiff University and the Legal Aspects of Medical Practice LLM Programme.

Victoria Stephens LLB is an Editorial Assistant on the Ethics, Law and Society Collection, Volume V and a Research Assistant at Cardiff University. She graduated from Oxford University in 2010 and has a particular interest in family and medical law. Her current research focuses on the 1980 Hague Convention on International Child Abduction and she has co-authored a global statistical study of such abduction applications which was presented at the Sixth Special Commission of the Hague Conference in June 2011. Recent publications have featured in Family Law and the Journal of Social Welfare and Family Law. From September 2012 she will be working as a research assistant at the Law Commission.

Anthony Wrigley BA, MA, PhD is Co-Editor of Ethics, Law and Society Volume V (Ashgate, 2012) and a Senior Lecturer in Ethics in the Centre for Professional Ethics, Keele University. He is a philosopher with research interests in ethics, metaphysics and law who has published widely in philosophy and applied ethics. His work predominantly tackles issues at the margins of life, from harms and the Non-Identity Problem in reproductive ethics to the scope and limits of advance decision-making for those who have lost capacity. He is also co-author of the European Textbook on Ethics in Research (The European Union, 2010).

List of Abbreviations

1990 Act	Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 1990
2004 Act	Human Tissue Act 2004
2008 Act	Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008
2010 Act	Children Schools and Families Act 2010
ARTs	Assisted Reproductive Techniques/Treatments
ARV	Anti-retroviral
ASRM	American Society of Reproductive Medicine
BBC	British Broadcasting Corporation
BI	Best Interests Test
BMA	British Medical Association
BPS	British Psychological Society
Cafcass	Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service (England)
Cafcass Cymru	Children and Family Court Advisory and Support Service (Wales)
CanFR	Canadian Fathers' Rights Groups
CanWG	Canadian Women's Rights Groups
CCELS	Cardiff Centre for Ethics, Law and Society
CIRM	California Institute for Regenerative Medicine
EEOC	Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (US)
EGE	European Commission's Group on Ethics in Science and New Technologies
ELSA	Ethical, Social & Legal Aspects
EUTCD	EU Tissues and Cells Directive 2004
FMLA	Family and Medical Leave Act (US)
GIFT	Gamete Intrafallopian Transfer
GMC	General Medical Council (UK)
hESC	Human Embryonic Stem Cell
HFEA	Human Fertilisation and Embryology Authority
HLA	Human Leukocyte Antigen
HTA	Human Tissue Authority
ILA	Interim Licensing Authority
iPS	Induced Pluripotency Stem
ISCBI	International Stem Cell Banking Initiative
IUI	Intrauterine Insemination
MCA 2005	Mental Capacity Act 2005
NHS	National Health Service

NHSLA	National Health Service Litigation Authority
PCRC	Pluripotent Cell Resource Center
PO	Parental Order
QANGO	Quasi-Autonomous Non-Governmental Organisation
RATE	Regulatory Authority for Tissue and Embryos
RCOG	Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists
SCNT	Somatic Cell Nuclear Transfer
SJ	Substituted Judgement
SSA	Surrogacy Arrangements Act 1985
STI	Sexually Transmitted Infection
UCB	Umbilical Cord Blood
UKFR	UK Fathers' Rights Groups
UKSCB	UK Stem Cell Bank
UKWG	UK Women's Rights Groups
ULTRA	Unrelated Live Transplant Regulatory Authority
UMASS	University of Massachusetts Bank and Registry
VHB	Virgin Health Bank
VLA	Voluntary Licensing Authority
WISC Bank	Wisconsin International Stem Cell Bank
WS	Werner Syndrome

Contents

List of Contributors	ix
List of Abbreviations	xv

INTRODUCTION

1	Introduction Nicky Priaulx and Anthony Wrigley	3
2	Steering through choppy waters – a tribute to the bioethical nous of Jennifer (Jenny) Gunning 1944–2010, BSc 1st Class (Open University), PhD (Birkbeck) Søren Holm	7

THEME 1 – ETHICS OF CARE

3	The Ethics of Care: Resetting our Social ‘Operating System’ after Rational Man 2.0 and Sorting Out What we Care About Nicky Priaulx	15
4	Care as Cornucopia: A Critical Ethics of Care and Fantasies of Security in the Neoliberal Affective Economy Robin Mackenzie	37
5	Ethics and Choice in Healthcare: The Case of Public v. Private Cord Blood Banking Karen Devine	55
6	Still Gendered After All This Time: Care and Autonomy in Child Custody Debates Susan B. Boyd	69
7	Eradicating the Badge of Inferiority Associated with Caregiving Men: Masculinity, Vulnerability and the Global Employment Context Michèle Alexandre	91

THEME 2 – THEORIZING THE ETHICAL

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 8  | Theorizing the Ethical: Ethics as a Shared Means to a Shared EndNicky Priaulx                                   | 113 |
| 9  | Why Applied Ethics?Ruth Chadwick  | 123 |
| 10 | Criminalization and the Moral Responsibility for SexualTransmission of HIVScott Burris and Matthew Weait    | 133 |
| 11 | Re-Thinking the Ethical: Everyday Shifts of Care in BiogerontologyJoanna Latimer and Maria Puig de la Bellacasa | 153 |

THEME 3 – BODY POLITICS

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 12 | Body PoliticsAnthony Wrigley  | 177 |
| 13 | Informed Choice not Informed Consent:Shifting Focus and Protecting InterestsBernadette Richards                         | 183 |
| 14 | Informed Choice over Informed Consent:Cracking the Old Chesternut ?Tom Hayes                                     | 201 |
| 15 | Wanted Dead or Alive: Organ Donation and Limitationson Surrogate Consent for Non-competent Living DonorsAnthony Wrigley | 209 |
| 16 | Swept Under the Carpet: Why Surrogacy Law Needs Urgent ReviewKirsty Horsey  | 235 |
| 17 | Screening Applicants for Assisted Reproduction:Complexities and IssuesSonia Allan                                       | 257 |

THEME 4 – GOVERNANCE

- |    |  |     |
|----|--|-----|
| 18 | Governance: Creating an Ethical ArchitectureNicky Priaulx | 279 |
|----|--|-----|

19	Human Tissue: A Common Regulatory Framework for its Procurement, Storage and Use Jennifer Gunning	285
20	Moving Human Embryonic Stem Cells Internationally: Near-future Challenges for the UK Stem Cell Bank and American Collaborators Natasha Hammond-Browning and Neil Stephens	299
21	Confidentiality and the Family Courts: Ethical Dilemmas for Health and Social Work Practice Julie Doughty	313
	Index	329

INTRODUCTION