PREFACE

This is the combined Supplement to the 2009/10 edition of the four-volume work, Social Security Legislation, which was published in September 2009.

Part I of the Supplement contains new legislation (Acts and Regulations), presented in the same format as the main volumes. This will enable readers to note very quickly new sets of legislation.

Parts II, III, IV and V contain the updating material—a separate Part for each volume of the main work—which amends the legislative text and key aspects of the commentary so as to be up to date as at December 7, 2009. Part VI, the final section of the Supplement, gives some notice of changes forthcoming between that date and the date to which the main work (2010/11 edition) will be up to date (mid-April) and some indication of the April 2010 benefit rates, and takes account of changes known to us as at December 7, 2009.

As always we welcome comments from those who use this Supplement. Please address these to the General Editor, David Bonner, at the School of Law, The University, Leicester LE1 7RH.

USING THE UPDATING MATERIAL IN THIS SUPPLEMENT

The amendments and updating contained in Parts II–V of this Supplement are keyed in to the page numbers of the relevant main volume of Social Security Legislation 2009/10. Where there have been a significant number of changes to a provision, the whole section, subsection, paragraph or regulation, as amended, will tend to be reproduced. Other changes may be noted by an instruction to insert or substitute new material or to delete part of the existing text. The date the change takes effect is also noted. Where explanation is needed of the change, or there is updating to do to existing annotations but no change to the legislation, you will also find commentary in this Supplement. The updating material explains new statutory material, takes on board Commissioners', Upper Tribunal or court decisions, or gives prominence to points which now seem to warrant more detailed attention.

This Supplement amends the text of the main volumes of Social Security Legislation 2009/10 to be up to date as at December 7, 2009.
