Care has been taken to confirm the accuracy of the information presented and to describe generally accepted practices. However, the authors, editors, and publisher are not responsible for errors or omissions or for any consequences from application of the information in this book and make no warranty, expressed or implied, with respect to the currency, completeness, or accuracy of the contents of the publication. Application of the information in a particular situation remains the professional responsibility of the practitioner.

The authors, editors, and publisher have exerted every effort to ensure that drug selection and dosage set forth in this text are in accordance with current recommendations and practice at the time of publication. However, in view of ongoing research, changes in government regulations, and the constant flow of information relating to drug therapy and drug reactions, the reader is urged to check the package insert for each drug for any change in indications and dosage and for added warnings and precautions. This is particularly important when the recommended agent is a new or infrequently employed drug.

Some drugs and medical devices presented in the publication have Food and Drug Administration (FDA) clearance for limited use in restricted research settings. It is the responsibility of the health care provider to ascertain the FDA status of each drug or device planned for use in their clinical practice.

To my wife, and children, and especially to my grandchildren, David Michael,
Kimberly Ann, Carolyn Beth, Alexandra Rae, and Matthew Jost.

BERISH STRAUCH, MD

To my wife, Diane, my daughters, Cristina, Nessa and Rachel, and to my grandchildren, Francesca and Elisa, for their continued support and joy they have given me throughout the years.

LUIS VASCONEZ, MD

To my mother, Betty Hall, who has been an inspiration to all her children;
and to my own three children, Jamie, David and Elise,
who have become very enjoyable young adults.

ELIZABETH J. HALL-FINDLAY, MD

To my wife, Britt, for her unwavering love, support, and sacrifice.

I am truly fortunate to be married to such an amazing woman.

To my sons, Brodie and Teddy, for the never-ending joy they bring.

Finally, to my parents, who share a contagious thirst for knowledge.
