FROM HOUSE OF LORDS TO SUPREME COURT

2009 saw the centenary of the Society of Legal Scholars and the transition from the House of Lords to the new Supreme Court. The papers presented in this volume arise from a seminar organised jointly by the Society of Legal Scholars and University of Birmingham to celebrate and consider these historic events. The papers examine judicial reasoning and the interaction between judges, academics and the professions in their shared task of interpretative development of the law. The volume gathers leading authorities on the House of Lords in its judicial capacity together with academics whose specialisms lie in particular fields of law, including tort, human rights, restitution, European law and private international law. The relationship between judge and jurist is, therefore, investigated from a variety of perspectives and with reference to different jurisdictions. The aim of the volume is to reflect upon the jurisprudence of the House of Lords and to consider the prospects for judging in the new Supreme Court.

Acknowledgements

This collection comprises papers given at the Society of Legal Scholars Annual Seminar 2009, 'Judges and Jurists: Reflections on the House of Lords', which took place at the Law Society in November 2009. No collection of papers from a conference can hope to capture the subsequent frank and stimulating discussion amongst academics, practitioners and the judiciary. But the essays here accurately reflect the quality of the event, and pay tribute to the twin inspirations for the Seminar: the transition from the House of Lords to the new Supreme Court of the United Kingdom, and the Centenary of the Society of Legal Scholars.

I note my gratitude to all the chairs, speakers and delegates at the Seminar, many of whom supported the idea of the event from its very outset: I thank particularly Dame Mary Arden, Anthony Arnull, John Baldwin, John Blackie, Alexandra Braun, Adrian Briggs, Richard Clayton, Elizabeth Cooke, Brice Dickson, Sir Terence Etherton, David Feldman, Mary Ford, Sir Francis Jacobs, Andrew Le Sueur, Aileen Kavanagh, Hon Michael Kirby, David Miers, Alan Paterson, Lord Rodger of Earlsferry, Keith Stanton, Jenny Steele and Graham Virgo.

The Seminar could not have taken place without a generous grant from the Society of Legal Scholars from its Annual Seminar Series Competition, and I greatly appreciated the encouragement of several Presidents of the Society for the project: Sarah Worthington, Fiona Cownie and Nick Wikeley. The administrative assistance provided by Mel Scott, Sally Thomson, Clare de la Torre, Luke Price and Jonathan Laidlow was invaluable.

Finally, I should like to thank Richard Hart, Rachel Turner, Melanie Hamill, Jo Ledger and the rest of the team at Hart Publishing for their patience and efficiency.
