MAJOR CHANGES TO FEDERAL PROCEDURE

Federal Civil Rules Handbook, 2011 Ed.

by Steven Baicker-McKee, John Corr, and William Janssen

New for 2011, this easy-to-understand handbook keeps you current with clear and lucid explanations of the latest changes in the law. Topics covered include:

- Rule 26 that protects most draft expert reports from disclosure and discovery
- Top-to-bottom revisions to Rule 56 that reorganize and replace former Federal Summary Judgment procedures
- Follow-up information on the recent Time Computation and Restyling Projects
- Additional commentary on e-discovery, e-government privacy, and plausibility pleading after Twombly and Iqbal

In addition to nearly 1,400 citations to cases decided by the federal courts, the text reveals practical applications, traps for the unwary, and practice tips to help you take advantage of the standards effective as of December 1, 2010.

PREFACE

This pamphlet updates the rules and statutes in the 2010 Revised Edition Pamphlet. Rule amendments are current as received to January 19, 2011, and statutes are current through Public Law 111-383, approved January 7, 2011.

Reference should also be made to Westlaw for any interim changes affecting the content in this Pamphlet.

This convenient reference Pamphlet, in form suitable for courtroom and office use, contains the text of the—

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Supplemental Rules—Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions.

Rules of Procedure of the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation.

Rules Governing Habeas Corpus Cases and Motions Attacking Sentence.

Federal Rules of Evidence.

Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Rules of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Title 28, Judiciary and Judicial Procedure.

Miscellaneous provisions from sections 2 to 39 of Act June 25, 1948, c. 646, are set out after the text of Title 28. The Constitution of the United States follows the Miscellaneous provisions. Provisions relating to financial disclosure requirements of federal personnel are set out in Title 5 Appendix 4.

With the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, a combined Time Table for Lawyers under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, and the Rules of the Supreme Court is also included. This Table indicates the time for various procedural steps required by the Rules.

A detailed, consolidated Index appears in the back of this pamphlet.

PROCEDURES FOR THE CONDUCT OF BUSINESS BY THE JUDICIAL CONFERENCE COMMITTEES ON RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Scope

These procedures govern the operations of the Judicial Conference Committee on Rules of Practice, Procedure, and Evidence (Standing Committee) and the various Judicial Conference Advisory Committees on Rules of Practice and Procedure in drafting and recommending new rules of practice, procedure, and evidence and amendments to existing rules.

Part I—Advisory Committees

1. Functions

Each Advisory Committee shall carry on “a continuous study of the operation and effect of the general rules of practice and procedure now or hereafter in use” in its particular field, taking into consideration suggestions and recommendations received from any source, new statutes and court decisions affecting the rules, and legal commentary.

2. Suggestions and Recommendations

Suggestions and recommendations with respect to the rules should be sent to the Secretary, Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure, Administrative Office of the United States Courts, Washington, D.C. 20544, who shall, to the extent feasible, acknowledge in writing every written suggestion or recommendation so received and shall refer all suggestions and recommendations to the appropriate Advisory Committee. To the extent feasible, the Secretary, in consultation with the Chairman of the Advisory Committee, shall advise the person making a recommendation or suggestion of the action taken thereon by the Advisory Committee.

3. Drafting Rules Changes

- a. An Advisory Committee shall meet at such times and places as the Chairman may authorize. All Advisory Committee meetings shall be open to the public, except when the committee so meeting, in open session and with a majority present, determines that it is in the public interest that all or part of the remainder of the meeting on that day shall be closed to the public and states the reason for closing the meeting. Each meeting shall be preceded by notice of the time and place of the meeting, including publication in the Federal Register, sufficient to permit interested persons to attend.
- b. The reporter assigned to each Advisory Committee shall, under the direction of the Committee or its Chairman, prepare initial draft rules changes, “Committee Notes” explaining their purpose and intent, copies or summaries of all written recommendations and suggestions received by the Advisory Committee, and shall forward them to the Advisory Committee.
- c. The Advisory Committee shall then meet to consider the draft proposed new rules and rules amendments, together with Committee Notes, make revisions therein, and submit them for approval of publication to the Standing Committee, or its Chairman, with a written report explaining the Committee’s action, including any minority or other separate views.

COMMITTEES ON RULES

4. Publication and Public Hearings

- a. When publication is approved by the Standing Committee, the Secretary shall arrange for the printing and circulation of the proposed rules changes to the bench and bar, and to the public generally. Publication shall be as wide as practicable. Notice of the proposed rule shall be published in the Federal Register and copies provided to appropriate legal publishing firms with a request that they be timely included in their publications. The Secretary shall also provide copies to the chief justice of the highest court of each state and, insofar as is practicable, to all individuals and organizations that request them.
- b. In order to provide full notice and opportunity for comment on proposed rule changes, a period of at least six months from the time of publication of notice in the Federal Register shall be permitted, unless a shorter period is approved under the provisions of subparagraph d of this paragraph.
- c. An Advisory Committee shall conduct public hearings on all proposed rules changes unless elimination of such hearings is approved under the provisions of subparagraph d of this paragraph. The hearings shall be held at such times and places as determined by the chairman of the Advisory Committee and shall be preceded by adequate notice, including publication in the Federal Register. Proceedings shall be recorded and a transcript prepared. Subject to the provisions of paragraph six, such transcript shall be available for public inspection.
- d. Exceptions to the time period for public comment and the public hearing requirement may be granted by the Standing Committee or its chairman when the Standing Committee or its chairman determines that the administration of justice requires that a proposed rule change should be expedited and that appropriate public notice and comment may be achieved by a shortened comment period, without public hearings, or both. The Standing Committee may eliminate the public notice and comment requirement if, in the case of a technical or conforming amendment, it determines that notice and comment are not appropriate or necessary. Whenever such an exception is made, the Standing Committee shall advise the Judicial Conference of the exception and the reasons for the exception.

5. Subsequent Procedures

- a. At the conclusion of the comment period the reporter shall prepare a summary of the written comments received and the testimony presented at public hearings. The Advisory Committee shall review the proposed rules changes in the light of the comments and testimony. If the Advisory Committee makes any substantial change, an additional period for public notice and comment may be provided.
- b. The Advisory Committee shall submit proposed rules changes and Committee Notes, as finally agreed upon, to the Standing Committee. Each submission shall be accompanied by a separate report of the comments received and shall explain any changes made subsequent to the original publication. The submission shall also include minority views of Advisory Committee members who wish to have separate views recorded.

6. Records

- a. The Chairman of the Advisory Committee shall arrange for the preparation of minutes of all Advisory Committee meetings.
- b. The records of an Advisory Committee shall consist of the written suggestions received from the public; the written comments received on drafts of proposed rules, responses thereto, transcripts of public hearings, and summaries prepared by the reporter; all correspondence relating to proposed rules changes; minutes of Advisory Committee meetings; approved drafts of rules changes; and reports to the Standing Committee. The records shall be maintained at the Administrative Office of the United States Courts for a minimum of two years and shall be available for public inspection during reasonable office hours. Thereafter the records may be transferred to a Government Records Center in accordance with applicable Government retention and disposition schedules.

- c. Any portion of minutes, relating to a closed meeting and made available to the public, may contain such deletions as may be necessary to avoid frustrating the purposes of closing the meeting as provided in subparagraph 3a.
- d. Copies of records shall be furnished to any person upon payment of a reasonable fee for the cost of reproduction.

Part II—Standing Committee

7. Functions

The Standing Committee shall coordinate the work of the several Advisory Committees, make suggestions of proposals to be studied by them, consider proposals recommended by the Advisory Committees, and transmit such proposals with its recommendation to the Judicial Conference, or recommit them to the appropriate Advisory Committee for further study and consideration.

8. Procedures

- a. The Standing Committee shall meet at such times and places as the Chairman may authorize. All Committee meetings shall be open to the public, except when the committee so meeting, in open session and with a majority present, determines that it is in the public interest that all or part of the remainder of the meeting on that day shall be closed to the public and states the reason for closing the meeting. Each meeting shall be preceded by notice of the time and place of the meeting, including publication in the Federal Register, sufficient to permit interested persons to attend.
- b. When an Advisory Committee's final recommendations for rules changes have been submitted, the Chairman and Reporter of the Advisory Committee shall attend the Standing Committee meeting to present the proposed rules changes and Committee Notes.
- c. The Standing Committee may accept, reject, or modify a proposal. If a modification effects a substantial change, the proposal will be returned to the Advisory Committee with appropriate instructions.
- d. The Standing Committee shall transmit to the Judicial Conference the proposed rules changes and Committee Notes approved by it, together with the Advisory Committee report. The Standing Committee's report to the Judicial Conference shall include its recommendations and explain any changes it has made.

9. Records

- a. The Secretary shall prepare minutes of all Standing Committee meetings.
- b. The records of the Standing Committee shall consist of the minutes of Standing and Advisory Committee meetings, reports to the Judicial Conference, and correspondence concerning rules changes including correspondence with Advisory Committee Chairmen. The records shall be maintained at the Administrative Office of the United States

COMMITTEES ON RULES

Courts for a minimum of two years and shall be available for public inspection during reasonable office hours. Thereafter the records may be transferred to a Government Records Center in accordance with applicable Government retention and disposition schedules.

- c. Copies of records shall be furnished to any person upon payment of a reasonable fee for the cost of reproduction.
