

Bankruptcy
by Carl Felsenfeld

The Professor Series®

Formerly Smith's Review®

Cover Photo: National Archives
U.S. Post Office & Courthouse - Kansas City, Missouri

A Product of Emanuel®

BANKRUPTCY

By

Carl Felsenfeld

Professor of Law and Director of Graduate Studies
Fordham University School of Law

THE PROFESSOR SERIES

Published by

Bankruptcy, 2nd Edition (1997)
Emanuel Law Outlines, Inc. • 1865 Palmer Avenue • Larchmont, NY 10538

Copyright © 1995, 1997

By EMANUEL LAW OUTLINES, INC.
1865 PALMER AVENUE
LARCHMONT, NY 10538

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form, or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the prior written permission of the copyright holder.

ISBN 1-56542-108-6

Introduction

This is largely a book about one long, complex statute. In discoursing about the statute, one is never sure whether to quote its words directly, in which event the book will be too long and less than useful to the student, or to discuss its provisions, in which event — in failing to use precise statutory language — the book will be less than accurate. The author has tried to steer equidistant from Scylla and Charybdis. He warns the reader, however, that in interpreting a statute it is the statutory language that is dispositive. In giving legal interpretations based upon this book, or in answering questions on an examination, the statute itself must always be consulted.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CAPSULE SUMMARY	C-1.
-----------------------	------

CHAPTER 1

SOURCES OF BANKRUPTCY LAW

I. THE ORIGINS OF BANKRUPTCY LAW	1.
II. MODERN LAW OF BANKRUPTCY	2.
III. BANKRUPTCY POWER UNDER THE CONSTITUTION	3.
A. Bankruptcy law under federal power	3.
B. Legislative history	4.
C. The “Code” (Title 11 U.S.C.)	4.
D. Amendments after 1978	5.
IV. OTHER STATUTES AFFECTING THE BANKRUPTCY CODE	6.
A. Procedural and administrative matters	6.
B. The United States Trustee	7.
C. Title 18— criminal sanctions	7.
V. THE BANKRUPTCY RULES AND OFFICIAL BANKRUPTCY FORMS	7.
VI. RELATIONSHIP OF FEDERAL AND STATE LAWS	8.
A. State statutes—assignments for benefit of creditors	8.
B. Federal bankruptcy supremacy	9.
C. Contrast with “dormant Commerce Clause”	9.
VII. POLICIES OF BANKRUPTCY LAW	9.

CHAPTER 2

THE BANKRUPTCY CODE: AN OVERVIEW

I. EQUITABLE BASE OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE	11.
II. STRUCTURE OF BANKRUPTCY CODE	11.
A. Organized in odd-numbered Chapters	11.
B. Chapters 1, 3, 5 — general application to other chapters	12.
C. Chapters 7, 9, 11, 12 & 13 — cases which can be “filed”	12.
III. DEFINITION OF DEBTOR	13.
IV. CASES ANCILLARY TO FOREIGN PROCEEDINGS — § 304	13.
A. Cases involving U.S. assets of foreign debtors	13.
B. Application of § 304	13.
C. Unfettered power	14.
D. Law and procedure drawn from cases	14.

E. Other Chapters of Code available	14.
V. GENERAL DEFINITIONS — § 101	14.
A. Definitions in § 101	14.
B. “Claim” — § 101(5)	15.
C. “Debt” — § 101(12)	16.
D. “Insolvent” — § 101(32)	16.
VI. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION — § 102	16.
A. Necessary to understand other provisions	16.
B. Term “notice and hearing” does not require a hearing	16.
C. “Party in interest”	17.
D. Meaning of “includes”	17.
VII. BACKUP POWER OF COURT — § 105	18.
VIII. WAIVER OF GOVERNMENTAL IMMUNITY — § 106	18.
A. Sovereign immunity from suits	18.
B. Congressional power to waive	19.
C. Waiver of immunity	19.
IX. JURY TRIALS IN BANKRUPTCY COURTS	20.

CHAPTER 3

COMMENCING A CASE — INITIAL STEPS

I. THE VOLUNTARY CASE — § 301	21.
II. THE INVOLUNTARY CASE — § 303	22.
A. Filing an involuntary petition	22.
B. Requirements for an involuntary petition	22.
C. Cases involving partnerships	23.
D. Filings under Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 only	23.
E. Petitions by representatives of foreign proceedings	23.
F. Debtor may answer or contest petition	23.
G. Period between the petition and the order for relief — the gap	24.
H. Dismissal and damages	25.
III. ABSTENTION; DISMISSAL; SUSPENSION	25.
A. Court may dismiss or suspend case	25.
B. Dismissal under other Chapters	27.
C. Appealing a decision to dismiss	27.
IV. CONSUMER ABUSES	27.
A. Record bankruptcy filings after 1978 Code	27.
B. 1984 amendments curb increase	28.
C. Notice to consumer debtors of bankruptcy alternatives — § 342(b)	28.

CHAPTER 4

THE DEBTOR — GENERAL RULES

I. DEBTOR'S INITIAL DUTIES	29.
A. Initiate and maintain free flow of information	29.
B. Schedules produced by debtor — § 521	29.
C. Other duties of the debtor	31.
D. Notice to creditors — § 342	31.
E. Hearings, examinations, and other duties	31.
II. THE AUTOMATIC STAY — § 362	32.
A. Automatic stay enjoins creditors	32.
B. Situations in which the stay applies	33.
C. Acts excepted from the automatic stay	36.
D. Duration of stay	38.
E. Relief from stay	38.
F. Penalty for violations	41.
G. Court orders under § 105	42.
III. EXEMPTIONS — § 522	42.
A. Exemptions in general	42.
B. Duties and rights of the debtor	43.
C. Choice of exemption scheme	44.
D. Power to avoid liens on exempted property — § 522(f)	46.
E. Effect of § 522(f) on impaired exemptions	48.
F. Waiver of exemptions restricted	49.
IV. EXCEPTIONS TO DISCHARGE — § 523	49.
A. General definition of discharge	49.
B. Exceptions from discharge apply only to individuals	50.
C. Exceptions that must be obtained from the court	50.
D. Eleven principal exceptions from discharge	50.
V. EFFECT OF A DISCHARGE — § 524	55.
A. Discharge affects personal liability	55.
B. Discharge enjoins future action	56.
C. Reaffirmation agreements — § 524(c)	56.
D. Hearing on discharge — § 524(d)	57.
E. Voluntary payment of debts	57.
VI. PROTECTIVE MEASURES FOR THE DISCHARGED DEBTOR — § 525	58.
A. Prohibitions on discriminatory and other acts	58.
B. Prohibitions applicable to governmental units	58.
C. Prohibitions applicable to private employers	59.
D. Student loans	59.
E. Expansive application of § 525	59.

CHAPTER 5

THE TRUSTEE

I. ROLE OF TRUSTEE — § 323	61.
A. The trustee represents the estate	61.
B. Trustee's right to sue and be sued	61.
C. Relationship to Chapter 9 and 11 debtors	62.
II. ELIGIBILITY & QUALIFICATION TO SERVE AS TRUSTEE	62.
III. FUNCTIONING AS TRUSTEE	63.
A. Employment of professionals	63.
B. Compensation of professionals	63.
C. Lawsuits against the trustee	63.
IV. THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE	64.
A. History and scope of office	64.
B. Duties of United States Trustees	65.

CHAPTER 6

THE CREDITOR — GENERAL RULES

I. DEFINITION OF CREDITOR — § 101(10)	66.
II. FILING OF CLAIMS — § 501	67.
A. Unsecured creditors must file proofs of claim in order to recover	67.
B. Debtor may file proof for creditor	67.
C. Trustee may file claim for creditor	68.
III. CONTRIBUTION AND SURETYSHIP — §§ 502, 509	68.
A. Situations to which applicable	68.
B. Contribution or subrogation — § 502 or § 509	69.
IV. DEFENSES TO CLAIMS AVAILABLE TO THE ESTATE — § 558	69.
A. Debtor's defenses available to estate	69.
B. Debtor's ability to waive a defense	70.
V. ALLOWANCE OF CLAIMS OR INTERESTS — § 502	70.
A. Allowance of claims generally	70.
B. Claims arising after the petition	72.
C. Grounds for disallowance of claims	72.
VI. TREATMENT OF SECURED CLAIMS — § 506	75.
A. Secured claims generally	75.
B. Valuation of security interest under § 506	77.
C. Voidability of liens generally	79.
D. Voidability of liens on undersecured claims	79.

VII. PRIORITY OF CLAIMS — § 507	80.
A. Priorities	80.
B. Order of priorities	81.
VIII. SUBORDINATION OF CLAIMS — § 510	86.
A. Definition of “subordination”	86.
B. Equitable subordination	87.
C. Liens on subordinated claims	88.

CHAPTER 7

THE BANKRUPTCY ESTATE

I. NATURE OF THE ESTATE — § 541	89.
A. Background	89.
B. Creation and formation of the estate	89.
C. Property in the estate	91.
D. Items not included in estate	93.
E. Ipso facto clauses invalid	93.
F. Restrictions on transfers of trusts exception	94.
II. ABANDONMENT OF ASSETS	95.
A. Right of trustee to abandon property	95.
B. Conflicts with other laws	96.
III. USE, SALE, OR LEASE OF ESTATE PROPERTY	96.
A. Management of estate property generally	96.
B. Operating a business	96.
C. Effect of automatic stay	97.
D. Adequate protection to creditor	98.
E. Sale of asset free of lien	98.
F. Sales of property subject to dower and curtesy	99.
G. Sales of co-ownership interests	99.
H. Ipso facto clauses invalid	100.
IV. EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES — § 365	100.
A. Overview of debtor’s executory contracts	100.
B. Leases as executory contracts	100.
C. Definition of executory contract	101.
D. How contracts are rejected	102.
E. Rejection constitutes breach	103.
F. Defaults occurring before bankruptcy	105.
G. Assumption followed by assignment	107.
H. Leases and sales of real property and timeshare interests	109.
I. Rights to intellectual property	110.

CHAPTER 8

THE TRUSTEE'S AVOIDING POWERS

I. POWERS TO AVOID PREPETITION
TRANSFERS AND OBLIGATIONS — § 544	111.
A. Scope of the power	111.
B. Transfers before bankruptcy	111.
C. The “strong arm clause” — § 544(a)	112.
D. Rights of actual unsecured creditors — § 544(b)	116.
E. Doctrine of Moore v. Bay	117.
II. POWER TO AVOID STATUTORY LIENS — § 545	117.
A. Scope of power	117.
B. Definition of statutory lien — § 101(53)	117.
C. In contemplation of bankruptcy — § 545(1)	118.
D. Unperfected or unenforceable against a hypothetical good faith purchaser — § 545(2)	119.
E. Rent or distress of rent — § 545(3), (4)	119.
III. POWER TO AVOID PREFERENCES — § 547	119.
A. Scope of power	119.
B. A preference involves a “transfer” of a debtor’s “property” — 547(b)	120.
C. Relationship of perfection of a security interest to date of transfer — § 547(e)	121.
D. The five requirements of an avoidable preference	123.
E. Exceptions from the voidable preference rule — § 547(c)	126.
F. Debtor’s ability to avoid a preferential transfer	130.
IV. POWER TO AVOID FRAUDULENT TRANSFERS OR OBLIGATIONS — § 548	130.
A. Scope of power	130.
B. Intent to hinder, delay, or defraud test of § 548(a)(1)	131.
C. Constructive fraud test	131.
D. Applicable to transfers made within one year — § 548(d)	133.
E. Rights of one to whom property is fraudulently transferred — § 548(c)	133.
F. Transfers occur upon creation of lien and again upon enforcement of lien	134.
G. Comparison of § 548 with other Code provisions affecting fraudulent conveyances	134.
V. POWER TO AVOID SETOFFS — § 553	134.
A. Setoffs generally valid	134.
B. Setoff must be on directly mutual obligations	135.
C. Presumption of insolvency — § 553(c)	135.

D. Avoidable setoffs	135.
VI. LIMITATIONS ON AVOIDING POWERS — § 546	136.
A. Statute of limitations	136.
B. Relation back of perfection affecting rights of trustee	136.
C. Seller's reclamation rights	137.
VII. ENFORCEMENT OF AVOIDING POWERS — § 550	137.
A. Enforcement powers overlap	137.
B. Initial and subsequent transferees — § 550(a)	138.
C. Limits on recovery from good faith subsequent transferees — § 550(b)	138.
D. Rights of transferee to recover for improvement costs — § 550(e)	138.
E. Statute of limitations — § 550(f)	138.
VIII. VOIDED TRANSFERS BENEFIT THE ESTATE — § 551	139.

CHAPTER 9

FILING UNDER CHAPTER 7 — LIQUIDATION

I. WHO MAY BE A DEBTOR IN CHAPTER 7 — § 109(b)	140.
II. CONVERSION FROM CHAPTER 7 TO ANOTHER CHAPTER — § 706	141.
III. DISMISSAL BY THE COURT — § 707	141.
A. Dismissal generally	141.
B. Dismissal of consumer cases — § 707(b)	142.
C. Effect of dismissal — § 707	144.
D. Comparison between § 707 and § 305	144.
IV. SELECTION OF THE TRUSTEE	145.
A. Interim trustee — § 701	145.
B. The permanent trustee — § 702	145.
C. Loyalty of trustee	146.
V. DUTIES OF TRUSTEE	146.
A. Duty to liquidate and close estate	146.
B. Trustee's other duties	147.
C. Duty to examine debtor — § 341	148.
VI. REDEMPTION OF ASSETS BY DEBTOR — § 722	148.
A. Nature of redemption	148.
B. Making a redemption	148.
C. Right to entire property	149.
D. Comparison with the U.C.C.	149.

VII. DISTRIBUTIONS — § 726	149.
A. Review of steps prior to distribution	149.
B. Division among creditors	150.
C. Pro rata payments	152.
D. Impact on other Chapters	152.
VIII. DISCHARGE — § 727	153.
A. Importance of discharge	153.
B. Right to a discharge — § 727(a)	153.
C. Debts discharged — § 727(b)	157.
D. Debts not discharged	158.
E. Difficulty of construction	158.

CHAPTER 10

FILING UNDER CHAPTER 9 — MUNICIPAL BANKRUPTCY

I. CONSTITUTIONAL BACKGROUND	159.
II. NATURE AND STRUCTURE OF CHAPTER 9	160.
III. ABILITY TO FILE IN CHAPTER 9 — §109(c)	160.
A. Entities that may be Chapter 9 debtors	160.
B. Voluntary filings only	162.
C. Suitability of other chapters	162.
IV. ADMINISTRATIVE VARIATIONS FROM FILINGS UNDER OTHER CHAPTERS	162.
A. Order for relief	162.
B. Automatic stay — § 922	162.
C. Debtor's duties	162.
D. Effect of list of claims	163.
E. Avoiding powers	163.
F. Dismissal	163.
V. THE REORGANIZATION PLAN	164.
A. Nature of plan	164.
B. Contents of plan	164.
C. Differences from Chapter 11 plans	164.
D. Disclosure and voting	165.
E. Confirmation of the plan	165.
VI. EFFECT OF PLAN CONFIRMATION — § 944	165.
A. Debtor and creditors are bound	165.
B. Discharge	166.
C. Exceptions from discharge	166.

VII. PLAN IMPLEMENTATION	166.
A. Role of court	166.
B. Role of municipal entity	166.

CHAPTER 11

FILING UNDER CHAPTER 11 — REORGANIZATION

I. REASONS FOR FILING UNDER CHAPTER 11	167.
II. ADVANTAGES OF CHAPTER 11	168.
III. WHO MAY BE A DEBTOR IN CHAPTER 11 — § 109(d)	168.
A. Eligibility	168.
B. Individuals in Chapter 11	169.
C. Voluntary and involuntary	169.
IV. CREDITOR COMMITTEES	169.
A. Purpose	169.
B. Appointment — § 1102	170.
C. Number and function of committees	170.
D. Powers and duties — § 1103	170.
V. TRUSTEE'S DUTIES — EXERCISED BY DEBTOR IN POSSESSION, TRUSTEE, OR EXAMINER	171.
A. Performance of the trustee's duties	171.
B. Discretionary appointment of trustee — § 1104	171.
C. Trustee duties	172.
D. Appointment of examiner	173.
E. Rights, powers, and duties of debtor in possession — § 1107	174.
VI. CONVERSION OR DISMISSAL — § 1112	174.
A. Conversion by debtor	174.
B. Conversion by other parties for cause	175.
C. Dismissal	175.
VII. OPERATING THE BUSINESS — NEEDS OF DEBTOR IN POSSESSION	177.
A. Operating the business generally	177.
B. Use of property	177.
C. Use of cash and its equivalents	179.
D. Access to credit	181.
E. Rights with respect to agreements — collective bargaining agreements	183.
VIII. CLASSES OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS	185.
A. Purposes of classes	185.
B. Similar and dissimilar claims	186.

IX. UNDERSECURED CREDITORS — § 1111(b)	187.
A. Recourse rule for undersecured creditors	187.
B. Exceptions from the recourse rule	187.
X. THE PLAN	189.
A. General description	189.
B. Who may file a plan and when — § 1121	189.
C. Prepackaged plans	190.
D. Mandatory contents of a plan — § 1123(a)	190.
E. Permissive contents of a plan — § 1123(b)	193.
XI. DISCLOSURE AND SOLICITATION — § 1125	195.
A. Importance of disclosure	195.
B. The concept of “adequate information”	195.
C. Documentation required to be sent	196.
D. Prepetition solicitation	197.
E. Communications by other than plan proponents	198.
F. Good faith requirement	198.
G. Role of securities laws and the SEC	199.
XII. ACCEPTANCE BY CREDITORS AND EQUITY SHAREHOLDERS — § 1126	200.
A. Acceptance by class of claims	200.
B. Acceptance by class of interests	200.
C. Non-impaired classes deemed to approve	200.
D. Classes receiving nothing deemed to reject	200.
XIII. CONFIRMATION BY THE COURT — §§ 1128, 1129	201.
A. Confirmation	201.
B. Requirements for confirmation — § 1129(a)	201.
C. Cram down — § 1129(b)	204.
XIV. EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION — § 1141	209.
A. The plan binds the parties in interest	209.
B. Vests property in debtor	209.
C. Effect upon liens	209.
D. Discharge of debts	210.
XV. IMPLEMENTATION OF PLAN — § 1142	211.

CHAPTER 12

FILING UNDER CHAPTER 12 — FAMILY FARMER WITH REGULAR ANNUAL INCOME

I. UNIQUE NEEDS OF FARMERS	212.
A. Difficulty of filing under other Chapters	212.
B. Creation of a new Chapter	212.

II. WHO MAY BE A DEBTOR UNDER CHAPTER 12	213.
A. Definition of family farmer	213.
B. Need for regular income	213.
III. ESTATE ADMINISTRATION	213.
A. Applicability of general provisions of Code	213.
B. Stay of acts against co-debtor — § 1201	213.
C. Trustee and debtor in possession — §§ 1202 and 1207	213.
D. Special rules of adequate protection — § 1205	213.
E. Sale of farm property permitted — § 1206	214.
F. Property acquired after petition — § 1207	214.
IV. THE PLAN — §§ 1221, 1222	214.
A. Who may file a plan and when — § 1221	214.
B. Contents of plan — § 1222	214.
C. Time of plans	214.
D. Confirmation — § 1224 and § 1225	215.
E. Payments to creditors — § 1226	215.
F. Effect of confirmation — § 1227	215.
V. DISCHARGE — § 1228	215.
A. Nature of discharge	215.
B. “Payment discharge”	215.
C. “Hardship discharge”	216.

CHAPTER 13

FILING UNDER CHAPTER 13 — INDIVIDUAL WITH REGULAR INCOME

I. OVERVIEW	217.
A. Adjustment of debts for individuals	217.
B. Mandatory Chapter 13 rejected	217.
C. Encouragement of reasonable plans	217.
II. WHO MAY ELECT CHAPTER 13 — § 109	218.
A. Limitations on debt	218.
B. Scope of “individual” filings	218.
C. “Regular income” defined	219.
III. CONVERSION OR DISMISSAL — § 1307	219.
A. Nature of conversion and dismissal	219.
B. Rights of debtor to convert or dismiss	219.
C. Rights of other parties to convert or dismiss	220.
D. Conversion to Chapters 11 and 12	220.
E. Consent of farmers	220.

IV. STAY OF ACTION AGAINST CO-DEBTOR — § 1301	220.
A. Expanded stay	220.
B. Exceptions from the expanded stay	221.
C. Expanded relief from stay	221.
D. Timing of relief from stay	222.
V. TRUSTEE — § 1302	222.
A. Appointment of trustees	222.
B. Duties of trustee — § 1302(b)	222.
C. Avoiding and other powers of trustee	223.
VI. RIGHTS AND POWERS OF DEBTOR — §§ 1303, 1304	224.
A. General powers	224.
B. Avoidance powers	224.
C. Debtor operating business	224.
VII. POSTPETITION CLAIMS — § 1305	224.
VIII. PROPERTY OF THE ESTATE — § 1306	225.
IX. THE PLAN — §§ 1321, 1322	226.
A. Only the debtor may file a plan	226.
B. Term of plan	226.
C. Mandatory contents of plan	226.
D. Permissive contents of plan	227.
X. CONFIRMATION — §§ 1324, 1325	232.
A. Confirmation hearing — § 1324	232.
B. Confirmation — § 1325	232.
C. Objections to confirmation	234.
XI. PLAN PAYMENTS — § 1326	235.
A. When payments begin	235.
B. Direct payment to trustee	235.
C. Administrative claims and fees	235.
D. Trustee makes payments	235.
XII. EFFECT OF CONFIRMATION — § 1327	235.
A. Plan binds debtor and creditors	235.
B. Estate reverts to debtor	236.
C. Property vests free of claims	236.
XIII. DISCHARGE — § 1328	236.
A. Scope of discharge	236.
B. Exceptions from discharge	236.
C. Time of discharge	237.
XIV. MODIFICATION OF PLAN	237.

CHAPTER 14

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

I. OVERVIEW	239.
II. BACKGROUND OF JURISDICTIONAL ISSUES	240.
III. JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURTS	241.
A. Jurisdiction in the district courts	241.
B. State court jurisdiction over proceedings	242.
IV. JURISDICTION OF BANKRUPTCY COURTS	242.
A. Status of bankruptcy courts	242.
B. Bankruptcy cases; “core” and “non-core” proceedings	243.
C. Weakening vitality of Northern Pipeline holding	244.
V. VENUE	244.
A. Venue for cases	244.
B. Venue for proceedings	244.
C. Cases in the wrong district	245.
D. Cases in the right district	245.
TABLE OF CASES	246.
TABLE OF BANKRUPTCY CODE REFERENCES	249.
TABLE OF STATUTORY AND UCC REFERENCES	254.
TABLE OF REFERENCES TO THE BANKRUPTCY RULES	255.
SUBJECT MATTER INDEX	256.