

STUDENT EDITION

FAMILY LAW

Judge William P. Hogoboom Justice Donald B. King

Chapters 8-10

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

PROGRAMS AND PUBLICATIONS

THE RUTTER GROUP

Californi Practice Guide FAMILY LAW

Chapters 8-10

JUDGE WILLIAM P. HOGBO

Former Supervising Judge
Family Law Depts.
Los Angeles County Superior Court

JUSTICE DONALD B. KI

California Court of Appeal
1st Dist., Div. 5

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS

Michael R. Asimow
Professor of Law
UCLA

Bruce
Tr
L

1993

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

PROGRAMS AND PUBLICATIONS

THE RUTTER GROUP

15760 VENTURA BLVD. • SUITE 630 • ENCINO, CA 91436

TABLE OF CONTENTS

See front of each chapter for detailed summaries of contents

	Page
1. The First Client Interview	1-1
2. Choosing Appropriate Relief	2-1
3. Commencing the Proceedings	3-1
4. Response and Postpetition Matters	4-1
5. Orders Pending Trial	5-1
6. Support	6-1
7. Custody and Visitation	7-1
8. Marital Property Rights and Obligations	8-1
9. Premarital, Marital and Marital Settlement Agreements	9-1
10. Tax Aspects of Marriage Termination	10-1
11. Trial Preparation	11-1
12. Default and Uncontested Hearings	12-1
13. Contested Trials	13-1
14. Attorney Fees, Costs and Sanctions	14-1
15. Dismissals, Statements of Decision, and Judgments	15-1
16. Challenging the Judgment: Motions, Appeals and Writs ...	16-1
17. Modification of Orders and Judgments	17-1
18. Enforcement of Orders and Judgments	18-1
19. Termination of Invalid Marriage	19-1
20. Nonmarital Cohabitation	20-1
Tables: Cases, Statutes and Court Rules	Tables-1
Index	Index-1

CHAPTER 8

MARITAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

CONTENTS

	Page
A. INTRODUCTION	8-1
1. Source of Marital Property Rights	8-1
a. Multistate contacts—choice of law rules	8-1
(1) Situs of property not controlling—law of marital domicile applies	8-1
(2) Compare—quasi-community property law ...	8-2
2. Types of Property Subject to Division	8-2
a. Community property	8-2
b. Separate property and separate property interests	8-2
(1) Jointly held separate interests	8-2
(2) FLA jurisdiction over joint tenancy and tenancy in common property	8-3
c. Quasi-community property	8-3
d. Quasi-marital property	8-3
e. Compare—no “tenancies by the entirety”	8-3
(1) Presumed community property	8-4
B. CHARACTERIZATION	8-4
1. Significance of Title	8-4
a. “Common law presumption” from form of title—in general	8-4
(1) Example—title in one spouse’s name	8-4
(2) Rebuttal burden—tracing not enough	8-4
(a) “Clear and convincing evidence” standard of proof	8-5
(3) Compare—tracing community property to separate property creates right to reimbursement	8-5
(4) Exception—superseding statutory presumptions	8-5
(5) Distinguish—characterization upon death of a spouse	8-6
(a) CC §4800.1 community property characterization of joint tenancy property	8-6

1) Intervening death before marital status judgment—property passes outside FLA	8-6
2) Intervening death after “status only” judgment/before adjudication of reserved issues—FLA applies	8-7
a) Rationale—family court’s jurisdiction not impaired	8-7
3) Comment	8-8
4) Cross-refer—severance of joint tenancy	8-9
(b) Intestate succession characterization ...	8-9
b. Special significance to joint title—superseding statutory presumptions	8-10
(1) CC §4800.1—“joint title” CP presumption for purposes of marital property division	8-10
(a) Rebuttal evidence limited to writings ..	8-10
(b) Compare—tracing right of reimbursement	8-10
(2) Community property presumption from “husband and wife” form of title	8-11
(3) Status presumption from form of vehicle ownership	8-11
(a) Effect of CC §4800.1	8-11
(b) Compare—presumptive community property from other forms of coownership registration	8-12
(4) Community property presumption under Multiple-Party Accounts Law (accounts in financial institutions)	8-12
c. Impact of federal law—federal preemption	8-12
(1) Federal savings bonds	8-12
(a) Limitation—fraud or breach of trust ...	8-13
(2) Military insurance policies	8-13
(a) Distinguish—no preemption once converted to individual policy	8-13
(3) Federal employee benefits	8-13
(4) Social security benefits	8-14
(5) Veteran’s disability pay	8-14
(6) Copyrights	8-14
(7) ERISA pensions	8-14
2. Status as Determined by Time of Acquisition	8-14
a. Property acquired before marriage	8-15
(1) Limitation—tracing may not preserve separate property status where title presumption controls	8-15
(2) “Inception of title” problems	8-15
(a) “Equitable title” before marriage	8-15
(b) Premarital leasehold interests “extended” after marriage	8-15

(3) Acquisitions during successive marriages to same spouse	8-16
b. Property acquired during marriage	8-16
(1) "Property"	8-16
(a) Professional education	8-17
1) Rationale	8-17
2) Compare—reimbursement for CP contributions to spouse's education and training	8-17
(b) Right to practice a profession	8-17
(c) Term life insurance	8-18
1) "Economic value" vs. "no economic value" approach	8-18
2) "Contract right" vs. "mere expectancy" approach	8-19
a) Community interest limited to term acquired with CP	8-19
b) Impact of renewal right	8-19
1/ Employee group term policies—expectancy interest only	8-20
2/ Compare—privately-owned term policies	8-21
c) Exception in cases of "uninsurable" spouse?	8-21
(d) Other contingent or "intangible" assets or interests	8-22
1) Nonvested or contingent pension benefits	8-23
2) Employee vacation time	8-23
3) Other employee contractual benefits	8-24
4) Copyrights	8-25
5) Compare—beneficiary interest under insurance policy	8-25
a) Even if beneficiary has CP interest in proceeds	8-25
c. Property acquired after separation or termination of marriage	8-26
(1) "Separation" contemplated by §5118	8-26
(a) Examples	8-27
(b) Court not bound by separation date recitals in pleadings or marital settlement agreement	8-27
(2) "Earnings and accumulations"	8-28
(a) CAVEAT—distinguish "earnings" from increases in worth	8-28
(b) CAVEAT—distinguish postseparation "earnings" from deferred compensation	8-29
d. Limitations on "time of acquisition" rules	8-29

(1) Ongoing acquisitions; apportionment	8-29
(a) Postseparation property subject to discovery	8-29
(b) Postseparation affirmative disclosure obligation	8-30
(2) Change in status by subsequent actions	8-30
3. Status as Determined by Method/Source of Acquisition	8-30
a. Earnings	8-30
(1) Form of compensation not controlling	8-31
(2) Business profits	8-31
(3) Corporate earnings	8-32
(a) Distinguishing employee earnings	8-32
(b) Exception—corporate entity disregarded	8-32
(4) Professional practices	8-33
(5) Pensions, retirement benefits and other forms of employee deferred compensation	8-33
(a) Examples	8-34
(b) Apportionment	8-34
(c) Survivorship not required to realize community interest	8-35
1) Case law background	8-35
2) “Terminable interest” abolished for all private and public pensions (CC §4800.8)	8-35
a) Contractual limitations	8-37
b) Retroactivity	8-38
3) Federal preemption limitation—ERISA pensions	8-39
a) ERISA anti-alienation/assignment exceptions narrowly construed	8-39
1/ Limited survivor annuity	8-40
2/ Marital property division by QDRO	8-40
b) Impact—“terminable interest rule” resurrected	8-41
(d) Exception—preexisting obligation precluding apportionment of CP interest	8-41
(6) Disability pay distinguished	8-43
(a) Compare—disability taken in lieu of retirement pay	8-43
1) Application	8-44
2) Measuring “excess” disability—effect of disability pension tax savings	8-44

3) Limitation—"Stenquist I" not retroactive to final judgments	8-45
4) Same result re military disability pay	8-45
a) USFSPA amendments authorize direct enforcement of state court orders dividing "nominal" disability pay	8-45
c) Compare—Title 38 disability	8-46
(b) Treatment following change in nature of payments ("recalculated" disability)	8-47
1) Postjudgment FLA proceeding to determine nature of future payments	8-47
(c) Treatment of proceeds from "private disability insurance" policies	8-48
1) Possible approaches	8-48
2) Cal. Supreme Court opts for "purpose analysis"	8-48
a) "Stenquist I" applies	8-48
b) Tested by intent of the parties	8-48
c) Comment—practical considerations	8-49
(7) Employment termination benefits distinguished	8-50
(a) Periodic "lay-off" benefits	8-50
(b) Severance or "separation" pay	8-50
(c) Military "separation pay"	8-51
(d) "Termination" or "severance" pay constituting deferred compensation	8-52
(8) Former spouse's right to "survivorship" benefits distinguished	8-52
(a) Example—PERS death benefits	8-53
1) Designated beneficiary revoked by marriage dissolution	8-53
2) Limitation—subject to CP interest of former spouse	8-53
(b) Example—Civil Service death benefits	8-54
1) Survivor annuities	8-54
2) Health insurance benefits	8-55
(c) Example—military survivor benefit plans	8-55
(d) Example—ERISA annuities	8-55
1) Rights of former spouses, generally	8-56
2) Problem in "bifurcated" dissolutions	8-56
3) Putative spouses	8-57

(9) Federal employment benefits—issues of federal preemption	8-57
(a) Railroad retirement benefits	8-57
1) Hisquierdo repeal legislation:
1983 Railroad Retirement
Solvency Act	8-58
(b) Federal Civil Service pension benefits	8-58
(c) Military retirement pay	8-58
McCarty repeal legislation:
Uniformed Services Former Spouses'
Protection Act ("USFSPA")	8-59
1) Effective date	8-59
a) Retroactivity—congressional intent to abrogate all applications of McCarty	8-59
1/ Time-limited statutory authority to "modify" post- McCarty pre-USFSPA
final judgments	8-60
2/ Other remedies	8-60
b) Limitation—statutory ban on post- McCarty divisions of military retirement pay not adjudicated by pre- McCarty
final judgments	8-61
1/ Impact	8-61
2/ Two-year phase-in for prior retroactive post-judgment divisions	8-62
c) Legal malpractice concerns re
pre-USFSPA final judgments ...	8-62
2) Retirement pay affected—state court jurisdiction reaches only 50% of "disposable retired pay"	8-63
a) "Disposable retired pay"
defined	8-64
b) Impact—CP interest determined out of " net " amount— exclusive of Title 38 disability	8-64
c) Disposition on remand of Mansell — stipulation dividing
"gross" military retirement
pay upheld	8-65
1/ Subject matter jurisdiction
not preempted	8-66
2/ Stipulation waives "excess
jurisdiction" attack	8-67
3/ No cognizable "mistake of law"	8-67

3) Nontransferable personal right	8-67
4) Payments authorized from retirement pay	8-67
a) For child support, spousal support and division of property	8-67
b) Provided by court order	8-68
1/ "Court"	8-68
2/ "Final decree"	8-68
5) Special jurisdictional requirements for property division orders	8-69
a) Other bases for exercise of personal jurisdiction insufficient	8-69
b) Present USFSPA contacts required	8-69
c) Presumptive domicile	8-70
d) Effect of general appearance in "mixed issue" cases	8-70
6) Additional USFSPA prerequisites to order directing property division payments from pension account	8-71
• Not a limitation on CP characterization or support payments	8-71
7) Conflicting claims or court orders	8-73
8) Effecting valid service on military	8-73
a) Method of service	8-73
b) Order "regular on its face"	8-73
c) Identification of member	8-74
d) Adherence to Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act	8-74
(d) Social security benefits	8-74
1) Federal preemption requires separate property treatment	8-74
2) Compare—"derivative benefits" payable to certain former spouses	8-75
3) Compare—allocating earnings of CP business to determine SSA entitlement	8-75
b. Gifts and inheritances	8-76
(1) Joint gifts	8-76
(2) Limitation—form of title may be dispositive	8-76
(3) CAVEAT—transfers in the nature of a gift	8-76
c. Personal injury damages	8-77

(1) Recoveries included	8-77
(2) Special rules—"personal injury" recoveries treated as separate property	8-78
(3) Reimbursement for community payments ..	8-78
(4) Division upon dissolution	8-78
(5) Distinguish—disability awards	8-78
d. Acquisitions on credit	8-79
(1) Loans obtained during marriage	8-79
(a) Personal credit	8-79
(b) Secured loans	8-80
(c) Failure to establish lender's intent— characterization by presumption	8-81
(2) Postseparation loans	8-81
(a) Focus on whether loan proceeds "related to the community"	8-82
(b) Compare—postseparation use of CP loan	8-82
(c) Compare—allocation of post- separation loan obligation at marriage dissolution	8-82
(3) Special problem—apportionment of interests in family residence	8-83
(a) Home acquired DURING MARRIAGE with separate property down payment and community credit	8-83
1) Beginning analysis—form of title	8-83
a) CC §4800.1 community property presumption from joint title	8-83
b) Same analysis if title held as "community property"	8-84
2) Apportionment of interests where title rebutted	8-85
3) Proper apportionment method	8-85
(b) Home acquired BEFORE marriage— separate property title, mortgage paid down with community funds ("Moore/Marsden" apportionment)....	8-86
1) Sections 4800.1 and 4800.2 inapplicable if title remains in separate property form	8-88
2) Community acquires interest through CP payments	8-88
a) Source of payments issues	8-88
3) General apportionment formula....	8-89
4) Adjustment to determine actual cash shares	8-90
5) Same analysis where CP home converted to SP by quitclaim deed and community subsequently makes payments	8-90

6) Comment	8-91
a) Distinguish approach to "during marriage" acquisitions..	8-91
b) What about the gift presumption?	8-91
c) Offset?	8-92
(c) Home acquired before marriage— CONVERTED into joint title during marriage	8-92
1) CC §4800.1 title presumption the initial issue	8-93
2) Reimbursement if presumption not rebutted	8-93
3) Apportionment of interests if title rebutted	8-94
(d) Home acquired JOINTLY before marriage—converted to joint tenancy during marriage	8-94
1) Conversion to joint tenancy during marriage triggers CC §4800.1 presumption	8-95
2) CC §4800.2 reimbursement for SP contributions to CP acquisition	8-95
a) " Moore/Marsden approach" applies	8-95
b) SP equity interests calculated as of conversion date	8-96
3) Apportionment of principal reduction of mortgage	8-97
e. Rents, issues and profits	8-97
(1) Examples	8-97
(a) Life insurance proceeds	8-97
(b) Proceeds from artistic works— royalties and copyrights	8-98
(c) Gambling proceeds	8-98
(2) Apportionment where profits generated through spouse's efforts	8-98
(a) Community services devoted to separate property	8-98
1) Nature of underlying property	8-99
2) Limitation—no apportionment where spouse's efforts negligible	8-99
3) Apportionment formulas	8-99
a) " Pereira " approach	8-99
1/ "Fair return"	8-99
2/ No "second deduction" for community living expenses	8-100
b) " Van Camp " approach	8-100

1/ Deduction for community living expenses?	8-100
4) Choice of apportionment methods	8-101
5) Nonowner-spouse's contributions	8-101
6) Apportionment of value where no "profits"?	8-102
(b) Postseparation services devoted to community property	8-102
1) Apportionment method	8-102
2) Compare—community property declining in value after separation	8-103
4. Statutory Presumptions as to Characterization	8-103
a. The "general" CC §5110 community property presumption	8-103
(1) Evidentiary effect	8-103
(a) Apportionment upon rebuttal	8-104
(2) Any form of rebuttal evidence	8-104
(a) Distinguish rebuttal of "title" presumptions	8-104
(3) Exception—estate of divorced decedent ..	8-105
b. Separate property presumption re acquisitions by wife before 1975	8-105
(1) Evidentiary effect	8-105
(2) Rebuttal evidence	8-105
c. Community property presumption where title taken as "husband and wife"	8-105
(1) Supersedes pre-1975 SP presumption	8-106
(2) Rebuttal standard	8-106
(a) Agreement required—tracing not enough	8-106
(b) CC §4800.1 written agreement rebuttal required?	8-106
1) Distinguish—characterization apart from marriage dissolution ...	8-107
(3) Compare—may be a tracing right to reimbursement where presumption not rebutted	8-107
d. Community property presumption re joint accounts in financial institutions (Multiple-Party Accounts Law)	8-107
(1) Definitions	8-108
(a) "Multiple-party account"	8-108
1) "Joint account"	8-108
2) "P.O.D. account"	8-108
3) "Totten Trust account"	8-108
(b) "Net contribution"	8-109
(2) Creation	8-109

(3) Husband and wife accounts
presumptively community property	8-109
(a) Rebuttal evidence	8-109
1) Tracing	8-109
2) Separate written agreement	8-110
(b) Community property rights
otherwise unaffected	8-110
(4) Survivorship presumption	8-110
(a) Termination of survivorship rights ...	8-110
1) Closing and reopening account ...	8-110
2) Modification	8-110
3) Unilateral withdrawal of funds	8-110
(b) Compare—no termination by testamentary provision	8-111
(c) Special rule for community
property accounts	8-111
e. CC §4800.1—community property presumption from joint title acquisitions
during marriage	8-111
• Originally applicable only to “joint tenancy” acquisitions	8-111
• Now applicable to any “joint title”
acquisition	8-112
(1) Operative dates; retroactivity issues	8-112
(a) Unconstitutional retroactive application to proceedings
commenced before 1984 (Buol)	8-113
1) “Compelling state interest” analysis (retroactivity of other property statutes compared)	8-114
(b) Retroactive application to pre-1987
acquisitions?	8-115
1) Legislative codification of
retroactive intent	8-115
2) Constitutional vested property rights limitations	8-116
a) Compare—constitutional application to pre-1984 acquisition of joint tenancy
property	8-116
(2) Applies to ALL property acquired during marriage in joint form	8-118
(a) Distinguish application of
Section 5110 presumptions	8-118
(b) Supersedes survivorship feature of marital joint tenancy property	8-119
(3) “Acquisitions” invoking presumption	8-119
(a) Assets FIRST obtained in joint form	8-120
(b) Assets CONVERTED into joint
title during marriage	8-120

1) Examples	8-120
2) Reason for conversion immaterial	8-120
3) Compare—reimbursement of separate property “contribution” ..	8-121
4) Compare— premarital joint property	8-121
(c) Effect where only equitable title obtained during marriage	8-121
1) “Inception of title” analysis	8-122
(4) Evidentiary effect	8-123
(5) Authorized rebuttal limited to a writing	8-123
(a) Impact—supersedes Lucas in part ...	8-123
(b) Rebutting the rebuttal— invalid writings	8-124
(c) Effect of tracing	8-124
1) Compare—tracing rebuttal under Multiple-Party Accounts Law	8-124
f. Tracing right to reimbursement for certain separate property contributions to community property	8-124
(1) Lucas background	8-125
(2) Statement of the CC §4800.2 reimbursement rule	8-125
(a) Operative date; retroactivity issues ...	8-125
1) Unconstitutional retroactive application to proceedings commenced before January 1, 1984 (Fabian)	8-125
a) Rationale	8-125
2) Retroactive application to pre- 1984 acquisitions?	8-126
a) Constitutional vested property rights limitations	8-127
(b) Compare— constitutional application to post -1984 acquisitions	8-128
1) Noncontributing spouse has no “vested property interest” in full CP characterization	8-128
(3) Absolute right to reimbursement absent “waiver”	8-129
(a) More than a “presumption”	8-129
(b) Form of waiver	8-129
1) Unwritten donative intent ineffective	8-129
2) Express waiver	8-129
3) “Writing that has the effect of a waiver”	8-129

a)	Writing creating §4800.1 CP presumption not itself enough	8-130
b)	Voluntary, knowing and intentional act required	8-130
(4)	Reimbursable “contributions”	8-131
(a)	ANY community property	8-131
(b)	“Contributions” included	8-132
1)	“Contribution” where separate property CONVERTED into joint title property	8-132
a)	Limited to separate property EQUITY	8-133
b)	Impact—statutory definition of “contributions” not all- inclusive?	8-133
2)	Compare— postseparation SP payments on community property	8-134
(5)	Extent of reimbursement; accounting for changes in value	8-134
(a)	Result if property appreciates	8-135
(b)	Result if property depreciates—net value ceiling	8-135
(c)	Proportionate reimbursement to spouses who both contribute in event of value shortfall	8-136
(6)	Effecting reimbursement	8-136
(7)	Significance of tracing	8-137
(a)	Disputes over “separate property source”	8-137
(b)	“Time-gap” problems	8-138
1)	Lucas “gift” presumption?	8-138
2)	Reimbursement so long as SP traceable?	8-138
5.	Status as Affected by Actions of the Parties	8-138
a.	Transmutation—agreements changing property status	8-138
(1)	Formalities—writing required under CC §5110.730	8-139
(a)	Legislative intent	8-140
(b)	Type of writing required	8-140
1)	Express written declaration changing characterization or ownership	8-140
a)	Extrinsic evidence irrelevant and inadmissible	8-140
b)	No particular “magic words” ...	8-141
c)	Compare—written consent to nonprobate CP transfer effective at death	8-141

2) Application	8-142
a) Transmutation not effected by signature on IRA consent form indicating acquiescence in beneficiary designation	8-142
1/ Compare—validation as nonprobate transfer effective upon death	8-142
b) Allegation in pleadings or by deposition not sufficient	8-142
c) Quitclaim deed	8-143
3) Limitation—statement in will ineffective to prove transmutation prior to death	8-143
4) Limitation—waiver of ERISA survivor benefits not a transmutation	8-144
(c) Recording to protect real property transmutations	8-144
(d) Exception for certain personal property	8-144
(e) Compare—change in status by commingling	8-144
(f) Transitional rule—statutory writing requirement inapplicable to pre-1985 transmutations	8-145
1) Impact—date of transmutation the threshold issue	8-145
2) Clear and convincing evidence burden of proof to rebut record title	8-145
3) Evidence of claimant spouse's “hidden beliefs” insufficient	8-146
4) Evidence of testamentary statements inadmissible	8-146
(2) Other limitations on marital property agreements	8-147
b. Severance of joint tenancy property	8-147
(1) Real property joint tenancies	8-148
(2) Personal property joint tenancies	8-148
(a) Retroactivity of “ Propst rule”	8-148
(b) Application—withdrawal of funds from joint tenancy bank account	8-149
1) Same result under Multiple- Party Accounts Law	8-149
c. Gifts between spouses	8-150
(1) Formalities	8-150
(a) Burden of proof	8-150
(2) Presumption of donative intent	8-150
(a) Purchase of property in other spouse's name	8-150