Preface

In this sixth edition, we have tried to remain faithful to the tradition of earlier editions written by Harry Krause alone. We have maintained the hallmarks of Harry's work—the comparative perspective on family law issues, the emphasis on the connection between family law and family policy, and the tie between theory and practice for those who will work in the family law area.

A Note of Thanks

The authors are grateful for the word processing help they received in connection with the creation of this new edition from Amanda Parker, Abraham Roberts and Shirley Jacobson.

They would also like to thank Kathy Vandergon, Patricia Heinz and the rest of the team at West for all their help.
