ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To those who after having tried everything, and despite my deep resistance, have been the only ones to give me the strength necessary to face each day the power of the addiction and the affliction of the illness, and move forward with my restoration process: to God the Father and his Son Jesus Christ.

To Dilia Paola Gómez Patiño for making a true act of faith by staying at my side and trusting that my healing was possible even under the worst circumstances.

To my parents Valentin and Mercedes for not ceasing in three decades despite my continuous rejection of their efforts in offering me this marvellous gift that they themselves received thirty-three years ago.

To Nadime Patiño for her beauty, kindness, care and prayers in the Kennedy neighbourhood south of Bogota (Colombia).

To my brothers and sisters of the Neo-catechumenal communities of the parishes of St Agnes in the Hague, San Mateo in Bogota and Carmelitas in Logroño that have offered me support and spiritual and personal guidance.

To the music of St Roberto Belarmino Church in the Kennedy neighbourhood of south of Bogota and of San Pablo in Logroño (Spain) that permitted my ears to pay attention to the Word.

To the millions of human beings who have been, and continue to be as of the writing of these lines, victims of international crimes by the continuing wars for political, economic, military and cultural power, they are the ones who really deserve recognition, and it is to them whom I publically apologise for the enormous limitations that are still present today in international criminal law in providing them effective material support.

To those, who, as my teacher, boss and friend, Judge of the International Criminal Court Sylvia H Steiner, have a vital commitment to international criminal law that is not of an exclusively formal nature, but, despite all obstacles, aims at offering greater effective material protection.

And to Michelle Coleman, Enrique Carnero-Rojo, Alejandro Kiss and Lachezar Yanev for their invaluable help in so many aspects of the preparation of this book.
