Acknowledgments

Let me express my sincere gratitude to the clients who commissioned Perla Lichi Design to design their residences and then graciously permitted us to photograph their new interiors for use in this coffee table book.

A special thanks also goes to the many talented craftsmen and women whose work appears in these photographs.

Finally, I want to thank my staff, whose dedication and teamwork make every day a new beginning.

Perla Lichi Design

“Every child is an artist. The problem is how to remain an artist once we grow up.” These words by Pablo Picasso remind me how lucky I am. My interior design work is my art and I get to live it every day of my life. Picasso also said: “Give me a museum and I’ll fill it.” I say, give me an empty room and I’ll make it beautiful (comfortable, too!).

Perla Lichi Design originated as a small, one person shop in Fort Lauderdale in 1990 and has steadily grown into a recognized force in the national and international design marketplace. After three years of experience working throughout the Middle East, Perla Lichi Design Dubai was opened in Dubai in 2007 to facilitate projects for our growing international clientele.

No matter where the project is situated, the design process begins with a private consultation. After an agreement has been signed, the Perla Lichi Design Team researches the best possible approach and determines appropriate solutions. A detailed presentation consisting of material samples and a simulation of the final composed design schemes in two or three dimensional drawings enable the client to visualize finished results.

Once plans and materials have been approved, the purchasing phase begins. The project then begins to roll out in timed phases. To give just a brief overview, this includes: architectural plan modifications, final surface selections (floor, wall and ceiling design, installation and finishing); fabric and wall covering selection and ordering; furniture selection, ordering and customization (finishing, upholstery); lighting plan, selection and
