BRIEF INTRODUCTION

Xu Huaihua, was born in 1938 in Pu Ning city, Guang Dong Province. In the 50s, he began to go in for traditional Chinese painting. Later he entered the Academy of Traditional Chinese Painting of Jiangsu Province. Taught by the well-known painter Fu Baoshi, he has dedicated himself to the figure painting of traditional Chinese painting for more than thirty. He has a vigorous attitude towards his studies. His learning foundation is very solid, especially his splash-ink paintings. Inheriting good traditions, he has never stayed in a rut. Keeping pace with times, he has been coming out new and fresh works. The figures of either ancient or modern times he created are vivid and lifelike. His works has been put on display and awarded for many times, and collected by the Art Gallery of China and other places. At present he is the vice president of Nan-jing Gallery of Painting and Calligraphy, and an advanced artist.
