童寯(1900—1983年),辽宁奉天(今沈阳)人,中国近现代杰出的建筑学家、建筑师、建筑教育家、建筑画家。 1925年毕业于北京清华学校(现清华大学),同年赴美留学,就读于费城宾夕法尼亚大学建筑系。1928年毕业 获硕士学位,随后前往费城、纽约两地建筑师事务所实习,1930年回国前转道欧洲作修学之旅,考察西方建筑。

回国后,童寯应邀担任沈阳东北大学建筑工程系教授,1931年任系主任。不久因"九·一八事变"而举家迁沪。同年加入上海赵深、陈植建筑师事务所,1933年事务所更名为华盖建筑师事务所,仍为三人合作,直至1951年9月。童寯在其职业建筑师生涯里创作了近200个建筑作品,其中大部分反映了他对现代主义的追求。童寯自1945年起担任重庆中央大学建筑工程系兼职教授,1952年后任教于由中央大学改组的南京工学院(现东南大学),直至去世。

童寓在建筑创作和教学之余还是一位多产作家,其涉猎范围包括中国古典园林研究、中西方建筑史研究、中国当代建筑评论、西方近代建筑研究等等,所撰著作和论文反映了他宽阔的兴趣范围以及深邃的思想积淀。

童寓自幼喜爱绘画,勤于习作,是我国近代著名的水彩画家之一。留学美国期间曾跟随道森教授学习水彩画, 回国后又师从山水画名家汤涤(定之)学习国画。他的画作风格洒脱豪放,绚丽严谨,色彩浑厚,题材多样,水 墨山水则笔触细密,墨色恬淡,二者均予人以深刻印象。

本次出版画集以童寯于 1930 年欧洲修业之旅期间所绘画作为主,同时结合他的日记材料,力图较为全面地展示童寯精湛的绘画艺术,以及他在职业生涯的一个重要经历中的所见、所感及所悟,以期成为一份记述中国第一代现代建筑师成长历程的珍贵史料,启发研究并垂范后学。

此外,本书还选录了童寯在其他一些时期的画作,以及若干篇针对其画作和学术生涯的研究文章,以供读者参考。

Tung Chuin (1900—1983), a native of Shenyang, was a distinguished architect and architectural scholar in modern China. He graduated from Tsinghua College (now Qinghua University) in Peking before studying architecture in the School of Fine Arts at the University of Pennsylvania, from which he received his MA degree in 1928. He then worked as a draftsman in several architects' offices in Philadelphia and New York city for two years. In May 1930, he took his grand tour of Europe and returned to China in August.

Tung Chuin first taught as a professor and served as chairman for a few months in the Department of Architectural Engineering at the National Northeastern University in Shenyang. After the September 18 Incident, which initiated the fourteen—year Japanese occupation of China's northeastern provinces, he moved to Shanghai and joined the partnership of Zhao Shen and Chen Zhi Architects, an office that was renamed as the Allied Architects in January 1933. Until the office closed in September 1951, Tung designed and participated in the designs of about 200 projects, most of which were in modernist style and exhibited his pursuit for architectural modernism. Tung Chuin worked as an adjunct professor at the National Central University in Chongqing since 1945. After 1952, Tung Chuin quitted his job as an architect and worked as a professor at the Nanjing Institute of Technology (Now Southeast University), until his death.

Tung Chuin began academic study in his spare time during his years practicing in Shanghai. His research and publications covered a wide range of subjects, such as Chinese gardens, history of Chinese and Western architecture, criticism of contemporary Chinese architecture, and modern architecture in the West and Japan. His works proved him to be one of the most distinguished architectural scholars in twentieth—century China.

Tung Chuin also excelled in painting. He studied watercolor painting with Gorge W. Dawson at the University of Pennsylvania. In the 1930s, he practiced Chinese style landscape painting with Tang Di, a Shanghai artist famous for his traditional style paintings. His watercolor paintings exhibit brilliant colors and expressive brush strokes, while his ink monochrome landscape paintings are introversive and insipid.

This painting collection, Tung Chuin Grand Tour Painting, is published for the first time accompanied by his diary of the same trip in the second volume. It captures the activities of a key turning point of the career of a young and gifted Chinese architect. During his four months traveling in Europe, Tung Chuin used a variety painting tools to record what he saw and experienced. They are also significant historical documents of modern Chinese architecture.

For readers' reference, this book also includes drawings in the appendix Tung made during other periods, as well as several articles on his art and scholarship.
