This play tells the story of a girl called Little Red Riding Hood. One day her mother sends her to visit her sick grandmother. As she walks through the forest, she meets a wolf. He tells her to stop and pick some flowers for her grandmother.

While Little Red Riding Hood picks flowers, the wolf runs to the old lady's house. The wolf eats the old lady, dresses in her clothes and gets into her bed.

When Little Red Riding Hood arrives, the wolf pretends to be her grandmother. Little Red Riding Hood thinks the old lady looks strange, but before she finds out who it is, the wolf eats her, too.

After he eats, the wolf goes to sleep, snoring loudly.

A huntsman comes by and hears the snoring, goes into the house and sees the wolf. He cuts open the wolf and Little Red Riding Hood and her grandmother both come out alive!

Act 1

NARRATOR:

This is the story of a girl called Little Red Riding Hood. People call her this because she always wears a cape with a red hood. She lives with her mother near a forest.

MOTHER:

I have a job for you, my child

LRRH:

Yes, mother, dear. What is it?

MOTHER:

Your grandma is not well
And you must go and pay a visit
I've packed this little basket
Full of food, so take it there
Do not wander from the path
And remember to take care

LRRH:

Of course, I'll do it happily
I love my grandma so
I'll just put on my cape and hood
I'm ready. Off I go!

Little Red Riding Hood puts on her cape and hood and she leaves.

NARRATOR:

Little Red Riding Hood sets off
for her grandmother's house.

LRRH: (to herself)

Walking through the forest
Is a pleasant thing to do!
The flowers are so lovely

A large, light-colored wolf with a wide, toothy grin is on the left, looking towards a small girl on the right. The girl is wearing a red hooded cloak, a green skirt, and brown boots, and is carrying a brown basket. They are in a forest with tall trees and a path. The wolf's mouth is open, showing its teeth. The girl is looking up at the wolf with a slightly nervous expression. The background shows more trees and some foliage.

The wolf enters.

LRRH:

My goodness! Who are you?

WOLF:

Good morning, little miss
Are you going for a walk?

LRRH:

No, I'm visiting my grandma
And I don't have time to talk

WOLF:

Your grandma? Where does she live?

LRRH:

Oh, she lives two miles away
Beside the big old chestnut tree
And so I cannot stay

WOLF:

But look at all these flowers
I think they're nice, don't you?
Pick a bunch for Grandma

LRRH:

Oh yes, I'll pick a few

NARRATOR:

Little Red Riding Hood leaves
the path to pick flowers.

LRRH: (to herself)

A bunch of flowers for Grandma
Will be such a lovely gift

WOLF: (to himself)

Now I'll run to Grandma's house
I'm clever and I'm swift

The wolf runs off.

Act 2

NARRATOR:

The wolf knocks on the door of Grandmother's house.

At Grandmother's house, the wolf knocks on the door.

GRANDMOTHER:

Who is knocking at my door?

Who's come to visit me?

WOLF: (pretending to be LRRH)

It's me, your sweet granddaughter
I've brought some food, you see

GRANDMOTHER:

Oh, thank you, child, for coming
I'm so happy that you're here
Lift the latch and push the door
And come right in, my dear

WOLF: (pretending to be LRRH)

Yes, Grandma, I'll be right there
Just leave it all to me

(to himself)

I'll lift the latch and come right in
How easy can it be?

NARRATOR:

The wolf goes into the house and in one big bite, he eats up Grandma.

The wolf eats Grandmother.

WOLF: (to himself)

That was quite a tasty snack
But rather thin and tough
I still feel rather hungry
I don't think it was enough
Red Riding Hood will be here soon
I just can't wait to eat her!

NARRATOR:

The wolf opens Grandma's closet, takes out some of her clothes and puts them on.

The wolf dresses in Grandmother's clothes.

WOLF: (to himself)

Now I'm dressed like Grandma
And I'll hop into the bed
She expects to see her grandma
But she'll find me instead

Act 3

NARRATOR:

The wolf waits for Little Red Riding Hood to arrive. She knocks on the door and the wolf answers.

WOLF: (pretending to be Grandma)

Who is knocking at my door?
Who's come to visit me?

LRRH:

It's me, your sweet granddaughter
I've brought some food, you see
