中国室内设计大奖赛. 住宅 RESIDENCE 2010 CHINA INTERIOR DESIGN COMPETITION

中国建筑学会室内设计分会 编

The challenge of transitional interior design

"Shanggao Cup" 12th China Interior Design Competition of the year 2010 was accomplished right now, which was the exhibition of recent excellent works in the design field of China. The competition of this year included 13 categories with the newly added "Furnishing Prize" and 190 works were awarded with prizes among all the 742 works with the prize—winning rate of 25.6%. All the designers actively responded to the selecting criteria with greatly enhanced works on the aspects of design creation and functional layout. And they also put more emphasis on the layout of poster, quality of image and the collocated characters.

With the development of the time and the enhancement of design requirements as well as the continuous progress of international advanced design concepts, our design industry has been still in the stage of "remaining much to do" and many problems have to be resolved in the development. It can be seen that our interior design industry is still facing an important transitional situation from the following aspects.

Firstly, in the 2009 Copenhagen Climate Change Conference, green and environment-friendly as well as low-carbon and energy-saving concepts became the main issue and their related concepts had become the main trend of social development and characteristic to the time. In the field of design, environment-friendly and low-carbon concepts will surpass all the other elements to be implemented into the concrete design of layout and patterns as well as the selection of materials and furnishings.

Secondly, the harmony among the human, nature and environment has been more focused; the humanism and human interests have been emphasized while the deliberate design style pursuing the "coolness" "extraordinary" is ebbing. The harmony between the human and nature is the common pursuit. additionally, the "technological content" and "cultural content" need more focus. For example, the application of the waste and reproducible materials as well as the solar, wind and geothermal energy in the interior design with the combination of modern aesthetics and regional cultures will be a task worth exploring.

Finally, the designers' professional and cultural cultivation need to be enhanced to satisfy the competition with foreign advanced enterprises on every aspect, which is also the prominent feature and major task of the next transitional period.

The annual interior design competition held by Interior Design Branch of Architectural Society of China provides a great platform for the transitional interior design. We all expect the interior design career of China to stand at the forefront of the world through our efforts.

室内设计转型期的挑战

2010年"尚高杯"第十二届中国室内设计大奖赛的评审刚刚结束,这是近年来国内设计行业内一次高水平的作品展示,本年度大奖赛包括新增的陈设奖共计13个参赛类别,有742件作品参赛,共有190件作品获奖,获奖率为25.6%。不论是工程类或者方案类的作品,设计师都能积极响应评选要求,作品在构思创意、功能安排等方面都有了很大的提高,参赛设计师对于展板的布局、图片质量、文字配置等细节相较于往年也更加重视。

但是随着时代的发展、设计要求的提高、以及国际先进设计理念的提出,我国设计行业的现状尚处于"任重而道远"的阶段,还有许多问题需要在发展中去解决。从以下几个方面来看,我国的室内设计行业正面临一个重要的转型期。

首先,2009年哥本哈根应对气候变化的国际会议中,绿色环保、低碳节能的概念成为本次会议的重要议题,与之相关的各种理念已成为当今社会发展的主流趋势和时代特征。在设计领域,环保、低碳将具有重要地位,这种理念将会落实到具体的设计布局、造型风格,材质和设施选配等方面。正如20世纪初期,由于材料、技术的革新,产生了现代主义风格;40—50年代全球化进程加快,随之国际主义风格盛行;70年代由于人们对传统的怀念,又有后现代风格的兴起。历史证明,时代发展进程中的各种因素,往往对设计的理念转变具有重大影响。

其次是人们在设计中更为关注人、自然、环境的和谐,强调设计中要重视人性化、人情味的表达,刻意追求 "酷" "另类"的室内设计风格正在降温,人与自然和谐相处的目标是大家一致的追求。还有值得强调的一点是,现代室内设计的"科技含量"和"文化内涵"。例如,废弃与可再生材料的利用,太阳、风、地热能等可再生资源的运用等,如何将它们运用于室内设计中,使其与现代人的审美品位以及地域文化相结合,将是一个值得探索的课题。

最后应该提及的是,我们要提高设计师的专业和文化素养,使企业在各方面能与国外 先进企业比拼,这既是下阶段转型期的显著特征,也是下阶段的主要任务。

中国建筑学会室内设计分会每年度举办的室内设计大奖赛,将为我们创建一个室内设计转型期的美好平台。期望通过大家的努力,使我国的室内设计事业能屹立于国际舞台。

墨绿、白与少量的黑色是整个室内设计的色彩基调,宛如一幅立体的水墨山水画。地面的地毯纹 样取自宋窑开片瓷釉纹,古朴细腻而典雅。

木雕彩绘佛像与画框里的树枝照片相对照,不禁使人联想起六祖禅师的一首偈子:"菩提本无树, 明镜亦非台,本来无一物,何处惹尘埃"的诗句。

瓶中的枯枝插花与整体环境相呼应,倾诉着设计师对北方冬季大气壮美景象的感想。

The project is the interior design for the sample room of 8-Li Island and the designer tries to find the intersection between the oriental and western cultures in the modest, delicate and luxurious atmosphere.

The sketch and random of oriental culture are combined with the concreteness and seriousness of western art, which is the designer's apprehension and illustration towards both cultures.

The black green and white with a little black is the tone for the interior design and create a threedimensional Chinese painting. The patterns of the carpets originate from the enamel of Song Dynasty with a simple, delicate and elegant sense.

The woodcarving with colored painted figure of Buddha echoes with the frame of branch images which reminds people of a verse of Sixth Patriarch of Buddhist monk: "The bodhi is not a tree, bright mirror neither a stand. There is nothing at all, how could be the dust anymore?"

The arranged flowers and deadwoods echo with the whole environment to deliver the designer's apprehension towards the north magnificent sceneries in the winter.
