前 言

中国货币，三千余年的历史，源远流长，光辉灿烂。

殷商以贝为币。先秦，刀、布、环钱的大量行用；秦始皇统一中国，统一货币，方孔园钱成为主流。一代复一代直至清末民初，随着国外造币技术的引进，机制铜元、银元才予以替代。寸方钱币，时大时小，时轻时重，点点滴滴如实记录了历史浪涛的痕迹。

中国贵金属币，先秦已出现银贝、银布。楚国的《郢爰》则是我国最早的黄金铸币。以后历代所铸的金铤、银铤、金钱、银钱、元宝、银两，直至近代的金币、银元丰富多采，百花齐放。

纪念币是金属铸币中的特殊币型，是人类货币文化中的重要构成部分。

中国纪念币，二千年前齐国所铸《齐造邦长法化》，可称作中国纪念币之始。历代民间流传的大量花钱（压胜钱）题材丰富，形式多样，则是中国早期的纪念章。民国初期，铸造纪念币曾盛行一时，可是，中国纪念币真正的春天，还是在新中国成立以后。

党的十一届三中全会以后，对内搞活，对外开放成了我国的基本国策。国务院授权中国人民银行为纪念币的唯一发行机构。1979年1月，由中国造币公司上海造币厂首次铸造《北京风景》精致纪念金章获得成功。同年秋日，由上海、沈阳，两家造币厂共同铸造的《中华人民共和国成立三十周年》纪念金币首次向全球发行。从此，中国开始跻身世界贵金属纪念币章市场。

十年来，我国陆续向国内外铸行了《中国生肖系列纪念币》、《中国熊猫纪念币》、《中国杰出历史人物系列纪念币》、《中国流通纪念币》及表现体育运动、名胜风景、古迹文物等各种纪念币章200余套。这些精致的纪念币章题材丰富，寓意深刻，设计新颖，雕刻细腻，受到国内外钱币研究者、收藏家与广大集币爱好者的赞赏与欢迎。

中国纪念币章在设计雕刻上具有浓厚的民族传统与独特的艺术风格。喷砂凝霜，镜面抛光等现代造币技术，更为中国纪念币章锦上添花。辅以严密的检测手段也为纪念币章金属成份合乎标准提供了可靠的保障。

我国铸造精制的贵金属纪念币章历史虽不长，但已不止一次地获得国际上的好评与赞誉。继1982年中国壬戌（狗）年纪念币在国际上获奖后，83年版中国熊猫金、银币，马可·波罗纪念币和中国龙年银币分别获得世界最佳金币，最佳银币等国际大奖及中国

工艺美术百花金杯奖。足以证明中国纪念币章之设计雕刻与铸造工艺等已达到世界第一流水平。

这本《中国现代纪念币》汇集了我国 1979 年至 1988 年间我国铸造的金属纪念币与部分纪念章的图形 140 余套。是 1987 年出版的《中华人民共和国纪念币》一书的补充和发展。全书图版用彩色精印，并附有详细的铸造说明。本书还收集了介绍中国古代、近代与现代纪念币的设计、铸造鉴赏等有关文章，图文并茂，更增加了本书的艺术性、知识性和资料性，它既是一本欣赏画集，又是钱币收藏家、爱好者的必备手册，还可供钱币研究者作为查阅资料的工具书。

另外，我们对所编入的纪念币章，按国际、国内对产品的评价，发行量多少及后期价的增长率，分别以符号五星的多少表示珍稀程度，也许会有出入，仅供读者参考。

FOREWORD

The Chinese currency, with a history of three millenia, goes back to ancient times and has since been shedding its prismatic radiance.

The Shang Dynasty(c.16-11 century B.C.)saw the use of cowries as money. Later, in the pre-Qin period, newer forms of currency—dao(knife-shaped coins, bu(spade-shaped coins) and huan qian (round coins)—went into circulation in quantities. When the First Emperor of the Qin Dynasty (Qin Shi Huang, as he is generally known) unified China, he also unified the nation's circulating media, and the round coin with a square hole in the middle became the order of China's money. From generation to generation, the system remained intact until the last years of the Qing Dynasty and the early days of the Republic of China, when, with importation of foreign expertise of coin-making, machine-made copper and silver coins superceded the original currencies. The coins, big or small, light or heavy, join in recording the traces of the tides of history.

The minting of coins with precious metals goes back to pre-Qin times, when the silver shell coins and knife-shaped coins first appeared. The square ying yuan circulated in the Chu Kingdom was the earliest gold coins to have appeared in China. Later dynasties witnessed the emergence of gold ingots, silver ingots, silver coins, yuan bao (shoe-shaped gold or silver ingot used as money) and yinliang(silver used as currency), while modern times saw the circulation of gold coins and silver dollars. So colourful are these forms of money that, when viewed together, they are like a hundred flowers all blooming at the same time .

Commemorative coins are a special type of metal coins, an important component of human numismatic culture. Chinese commemorative coins date back to 2,00 years ago when the knife coins were first minted to signalize the founding of the Qi Kingdom, marking the beginning of the making of commemorative coins. The large quantity of huanqian(mascot-suggestive rectangular coins) circulated among popular masses can be considered China's earliest commemorative coins, characterized by their rich themes and great variety. In the early 1910s, minting of dedicatory pieces was for a time very much the vogue, but the real springtime for Chinese commemorative coins did not arrive until after the founding of New China.

Following the Third Plenary Session of the Eleventh Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, invigorating of domestic economy and opening up to the outside world became China's basic State policy. The State Council authorized the People's Bank of China to be the sole distributing agent for commemorative coins. In January 1979, the Shanghai Mint under the Chinese Mint Corporation scored a great success in issuing the first exquisite commemorative coins depicting Beijing's scenery. In the autumn of the same year, the commenorative coins jointly produced by the mints of Shanghai and Shenyang to mark the 30th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China were the first Chinese coins to effect global distribution. It was then that China ascended to the world market of precious metal commemorative coins .

Over the past decade, China distributed in due succession her Twelve Animals Serial Commemorative Coins, China Panda Commemorative Coins. Outstanding Chinese Historical Figures Serial Commemorative Coins, China Circulating Commemorative Coins and other varieties manifesting development of sports and introducing this country's scenic spots and landscapes, historical sites and cultural relics—over 200 in all. These exquisite species, featuring broad range of subjects, profound intrinsic meaning, novel designs and refined craftsmanship, have been highly appreciated and warmly received by numismatists and coin collecting enthusiasts both domestic and overseas. In design and cut, Chinese commemorative coins and medals are characterized by rich national traditions and unique artistic styles. Present-day minting technology such as "sand-blasting for frosting effect" and "mirror finishing" have further enhanced the excellence of the coins and medals. In addition, the rigorous testing means provides reliable protection to the standard composition of metals.

Although it has not been long since China began to introduce valuable metal commemorative coins and medals, they have nevertheless time and again won favourable comments and honour internationally. In 1982 the Chinese Renxu (Dog) Year Commemorative Silver Coin won an international prize. The following year the China Panda Gold and Silver Coins, the Marco Polo Commemorative Coins and the Chinese Dragon Year Silver Coins respectively won the World's Best Gold Coin, the World's Best Silver Coin and other international grand prizes. Later, the coins won the 1986 Chinese Art and Craft Hundred Flowers Gold Cup. All these testify to the fact that Chinese commemorative coins and medals have reached world topflight levels in terms of design, cut, and production art and expertise.

This CHINA CONTEMPORARY COMMEMORATIVE COINS, mustering 130-plus sets of metal commemorative coins and part of the figures of forthcoming pieces spanning the years 1979 and 1988, is an addition to and development of COMMEMORATIVE COINS OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA published in 1984. All the plates are done in colour printing and detailed descriptions are given with regard to manufacture technology. The book also presents articles introducing the design and minting of the coins made in ancient, modern and contemporary times and ways to appreciate them. Rich in text and illustration, the collection is bountiful in artistry, knowledge and information. It is not only a worthy album, but also an essential hand-book for keen coin collectors. In addition, it serves as a handy reference for numismatists in their consultation of relevant data.

For readers' easy reference, coins and medals listed in this album are arranged in order of rarity as decided according to domestic evaluation, volume of circulation and increase rate of their later prices, and manifested in the number of stars out of a maximum five.

A work of this nature can never be complete. Moreover, owing to the limitations on the part of the compilers, there may be many imperfections in the book. We should therefore be grateful to readers who would be so kind as to bring them to our notice.

《钱币丛书》简介

历史悠久、光辉灿烂的中华货币文化，是中华民族文化传统的一件瑰宝，一千多年来，许多考古学家、收藏家和文物工作者，进行了搜集、发掘、整理、考证和调查研究工作，积累了大量的历史货币资料。党的十一届三中全会以来，在进行社会主义物质文明和精神文明建设的大好形势下，我国的历史考古、文物工作取得了辉煌的成就，历史货币文物的研究也日益发展。中国钱币学会成立后，这个发展势头又有了新的高涨。各方面希望既要抢救整理和介绍过去的历史货币研究成果，更要以马克思主义、毛泽东思想为指导，对历史货币进行历史唯物主义的科学研究。为此，我们决定编纂《钱币丛书》，以供从事货币史和钱币学的科研工作者、教学工作者、钱币收藏家和爱好者共同研讨。

编纂《钱币丛书》的目的是：发扬中华货币文化，交流货币史和钱币学的科研成果，介绍货币文物工作经验，普及历史货币知识，为振兴中华、建设社会主义物质文明和精神文明作出贡献。我们本着理论与实践、历史与现状、普及与提高、学术性与知识性四者兼顾和实事求是的原则进行编撰，主要内容有以下几个方面：一、过去和现在对历史货币的研究成果，包括专著、译文、学术论文集、专题讨论集和调查报告等；二、有关货币史、钱币学的教材、工具书和普及读物；三、少数民族或地区性的历史货币研究；四、钱币的鉴定、考证、有关专业技术和实际工作经验；五、编译或重印货币文物的历史资料。以上各类著述将陆续出版。

由于我们的水平有限，经验不足，编辑出版这套丛书，困难很多。殷切期望全国财政金融和历史文物部门、海内外学者专家、钱币收藏家和爱好者不吝赐教，共同编好这套丛书。

NOTES ON NUMISMATICS SERIES

Chinese currency culture, featuring continuance and resplendence, is a gem of the cultural tradition of the Chinese nation. Down the millenium, archaeologists, antique collectors and specialists engaged in work on historical and cultural relics have devoted themselves to collecting, unearthing, systematizing, researching and surveying of metal coins and have accumulated hosts of historical data concerning money.

Since the convention of the Third Plenary Session of the Eleventh Central Committee of the Communist Party of China, blessed by the excellent situation of nationwide advances of socialist material and spiritual civilizations, archaeological work and unearthing and preservation of historical relics have made brilliant achievements so that studies on currency relics have also witnessed steady development. With the founding of China Numismatics Society, such development has gained even greater momentum. People of various circles hope that, while paying attention to salvaging and collating as well as introducing past achievement of research on historical currencies, emphasis should also be placed on giving historical currencies a scientific study featuring dialectic materialism and guided by Marxism-Leninism and Mao Zedong Thought. This prompts us to compile the NUMISMATICS SERIES for joint exploration in this field by research workers on currency history as well as by teachers, numismatists and enthusiasts.

The aims of compiling this Series are to enhance Chinese money culture, carry out interchange of results in the study of history of currencies and numismatics, introduce experience of work on historical and cultural relics and popularize knowledge on history of currencies. It is hoped that this will make contributions to further invigoration of this country and develop material and spiritual civilizations in the Chinese society. The guiding principle we adhere to in compiling this Series is to give quartternary consideration to: theory and practice, history and current condition, popularization and elevation, and academic nature and representation of knowledge.

Main contents of the Series are:

1. Achievements in researches—past and present—on historical currencies in the form of monographs, translated articles, collection of academic papers and special discussions and investigative reports;
2. Textbooks, reference books and popular reading matter concerning money history and numismatics;
3. Researches on historical currencies both regional and minority national;
4. Coin authentication and textual research, relevant professional expertise, and actual work experience;
5. Edited—translated or reprinted historical materials on numismatic relics.

The above works will be published in their due succession.

Our academic level being limited and our experience inadequate, compiling and publishing this Series involves much difficulty. We shall therefore appreciate the attention of personages in financial and monetary circles and historical relics departments nationwide, as well as of scholars and experts, numismatists and enthusiasts, both domestic and overseas. It is our fervent hope that they will be generous in their suggestions and help make compilation of this Series a success.
