前言

在英语学习中，单词的学习是最基本、最有决定性意义的，但又是最难掌握的部分。词汇量的大小、单词掌握的程度决定着阅读能力的大小，决定着交际能力的强弱，也决定着英语综合能力的发展。大学英语六级考试大纲要求考生掌握的词汇量是 5500 个单词和 1200 个词组。传统的六级词汇书像一本本词典，枯燥而乏味，很多学生背了后边忘了前边，收效甚微。

本书的独特之处：

本书打破了按字母顺序罗列大纲词汇表的传统做法，采用了历年真题作为单词出现频率的统计依据。根据六级大纲词汇表，编者精心选出 800 个六级核心高频、常用词汇，把它们分列在 10 天的复习内容中，每天一个特定的主题，这些主题的选择并不是随机的，而是编者在分析六级历年真题阅读理解文章题材的基础上，有侧重点地进行的筛选。

每一个主题下有四部分，每一部分列出 20 个六级考试核心高频常用词，先通过一篇选词填空用的文章（美文酷秀）为读者提供一个实践的机会，使读者在具体语境中体会高频词的特定用法。文章后都配有练习答案。之后是每个单词的词义，并提供固定搭配和以六级真题素材为基础的语境记忆。

内容特点：

1. 打破传统，标新立异。本书在词汇编排上别出心裁，改变了传统单词记忆书籍的编写形式，通过电脑搜索的方法对大纲单词进行科学统计，标出词频，重点突出。

2. 真题出击，直通考点。本书结合历年的六级考试真题，全方位解读核心词汇，释义准确并配真题例句，使词汇学习有的放矢。

3. 精选美文，讲练结合。“美文酷秀”开拓词汇学习深层境界，通过完成原汁原味、自然地道的选词填空，读者可以活学活用所学单词，不用再拘泥于单词本身，在丰富语言知识的同时，提高了应试能力。

熟练掌握词汇是英语高分的基础。“工欲善其事，必先利其器”。希望本书为各位读者提供一把钥匙，助您过关斩将，为您在六级考试中获得高分奠定坚实的基础，同时帮助各位读者摆脱苦背单词、背单词苦的困境，使记单词变成一件轻松愉快的事情。

The United Nations estimates the countrywide flooding in Pakistan has affected more than one million people.

It has been particularly difficult for those in the northwestern Khyber-Pakhtunkhwa Province. U.N. Office for Coordinating Humanitarian Affairs 1 Nicki Bennett says the mountainous northwestern part of the country normally does not see disaster flooding. Bennett says fortunately, many 2 agencies were in place there to help with the millions of people affected by the Pakistani military's ongoing offensive against the Taliban. She says the work is not easy, though, considering this is the country's worst flooding in more than 80 years and the area's mountainous terrain can make transportation difficult, even in the best of weather. It's impossible for the victims to 3 from the area.

"We have 4 throughout all these areas; we do not have to fly in staff or fly in stocks," said Bennett. "But we were not expecting this level of problems with infrastructure and access." She says it is because of this lack of access the relief efforts have been moving slowly. "All of the major bridges that cross the Swat River have all come down, which meant we have not been able to get to the worst affected areas," said Bennett.

Authorities say thousands of people remain stranded in villages with food and fuel running low. The Pakistani army has mobilized tens of thousands of troops, rescuing 20,000 people from 5 areas.

A number of countries are providing 6 assistance. The U. S. Embassy spokesman in Islamabad, Rick Snelsire, says Washington has provided $10 million immediately for relief, in addition to nearly 200,000 hilal meals, helicopters and water purification machines.

Bennett says clean drinking water is the next big concern, especially to prevent an 7 of diseases such as diarrhea or cholera. "We do have, you know, areas that are still standing in water," said Bennett. "There are 8 carcasses, and the conditions pose a risk for those kinds of things."

A few days without rain have allowed flood waters to begin to recede, but weather forecasters predict more 9 in the days to come.

As new areas of land in southern Pakistan succumb to the floodwaters, the UN is stepping up the urgency of its warnings about the threat from waterborne diseases. This also follows confirmation from the UN over the weekend of the first case of cholera.

UN officials say access to vulnerable children who live in 10 tent has improved and the relief operation now has the capacity to respond; it's primarily about funding. They say that being able to deliver more safe drinking water would make an immediate difference to saving the lives of children.

The Commerce Department report showed the gross domestic product growing at a 1.6-percent annual rate between April and June. That is down sharply from a previous estimate, and raises concerns about the pace of economic recovery from the worst recession in decades.

The gross domestic product is the broadest measure of the economy. U. S. President Barack Obama says America's economy is expanding in a 1 way but not as fast as it needs to.

In an interview Sunday with NBC News, Mr. Obama 2 the U. S. Congress to pass some of his existing 3 such as accelerating loans to small businesses and tax breaks for companies.

He said legislation that helps small businesses get credit will give them more incentive to make investments. In a 4 economy, the 5 should be responsible for the recovery of the economy.

Mr. Obama also told NBC he is not concerned about recent U. S. opinion polls that found about one-fifth of Americans believe he is a Muslim, although he is a 6 Christian and has made many public statements about his 7. He also said he is not worried about rumors that he was not born in America, saying, "I can't spend all my time with my birth certificate plastered on my forehead."

The president noted there is a "network of misinformation" that in a new media era can get churned out constantly.

Mr. Obama also reiterated that he will stick to his 8 and Americans should work in 9 to cure the nation's economic 10.
