Miss Kate taught physics in a New York school. Last month she was explaining to one of her classes about sound, and she decided to test them to see how well they had understood her explanation. She said to them, “Now, I have a brother in Los Angeles. If I was calling him on the phone, and at the same time you were 80 meters away, and were listening to me from across the street, which of you would hear what I said earlier, my brother or you and for what reason?”

A boy at once answered, “Your brother, Miss Kate, because electricity travels faster than sound waves(声波).”

“That’s very good,” Miss Kate said, but then Jenny said, “I don’t agree. Your brother would hear you earlier because it is 11 o’clock here. It’s only eight o’clock in Los Angeles.”

46. Miss Kate was a physics teacher.

Mobile phone has become a problem for middle schools. Some middle schools in Australia have banned(禁止)students from carrying mobile phones during school hours.

Mobile phone use among children has become a problem for schools. Several children have got mobile phones from parents and friends as Christmas gifts, and more students will want them.

Lucy Bluett, an expert, said mobile phone use was a distraction(分心的事)to students during school hours. Teachers were also saying that sometimes students might use phone messages to cheat during exams.

She said some schools had tried to ban mobile phones. Some parents felt unhappy because they couldn't call up their children.

Many teachers said students should not have mobile phones at school, but if there was a good reason, they could leave their phones at school office.

Many people say that they understand why parents would want their children to have phones, but they think schools should let the students know when they can use their mobile phones.

Dave is my friend. His family is rich. His parents always give him lots of pocket money. But Dave thinks his parents work very hard and it's not easy for them, so he always tries his best to save money. He has some good ways to do it.

Dave likes reading. He has lots of books. He tells me he often buys books online, because they're cheaper. And when he has free time, he often goes to bookstores or libraries to do some reading.

Dave has a bike. He usually goes to school by bike instead of taking a bus. Sometimes when it rains or snows, he walks. These two ways help Dave keep healthy and save some money.

Dave brings a bottle of water to school every day. When other students drink juice, he enjoys his water. He thinks water is the cheapest but the best drink.

Some students think Dave is mean(小器). But I don't think so. I think he is right. What do you think of him?

51. What do Dave's parents always give him?
A. Lots of books. B. Lots of money. C. Lots of hard work.
52. Why does Dave try his best to save his pocket money?
A. Because he thinks his parents work very hard and it's not easy for them.
B. Because he wants to buy a lot of books.

Dear students,

As you all know, it is important for you to learn English well. In order to help you to improve English, the English Club will have an English party at about 7 o'clock this Friday evening in the school hall. We are sure that it will be helpful to you. But we want you to remember the rules for this party.

- Don't speak Chinese. If you do, you will have to leave.
- Please wear school uniforms. If you don't, we won't let you in.
- Don't bring food to the party. If you do, the teacher will take it away.
- You can sing, dance and talk during the party, but you mustn't run or shout at the party.

Mr. Robson, the teacher from England, will take part in the party. You can communicate with him.

Thank you very much. Hope all of you can enjoy yourselves at the party!

The first telephone cards, produced in 1976, were Italian. Five years later the first British card appeared, and now you can buy cards in more than a hundred countries. People usually start collecting cards because they are small and light and you do not need much space for them. It is also a cheap hobby for beginners, although for some people it becomes a serious business. In Paris, for example, there is a market where you can only buy telephone cards, and some cards cost up to £ 4,000. The first Japanese card has a value of about £ 28,000. Most people only see cards with prices like these in their collectors' magazine.

66. When were the first Italian telephone cards produced?

67. How many countries can produce telephone cards now?

68. Where can we find a market to buy telephone cards?

69. What is the price of the first Japanese telephone card?

70. In which magazine do most people see cards with prices?
