Many American people don't think about clothes very much. They just like to be comfortable.

When they go out to enjoy 2, they can wear almost 3. At theatres, cinemas and concerts you can put on what you like—from elegant suits and dresses to jeans and sweaters. Anything 4, as long as you look clean and tidy.

But in Britain, as well as the US men in offices usually wear suits and ties, and women wear dresses 5 skirts(not trousers). Doctors, lawyers and business people wear quite formal clothes. And in some hotels, restaurants, men have to wear ties and women wear smart dresses.

In many ways, Americans are 6 than British people, but they are more careful with their clothes. At home, or on holiday, 7 Americans wear informal or sports-clothes. But when they go out in the evening, they like to look elegant. In good hotels and restaurants, men have to wear jackets and ties, and women wear pretty clothes and smart hairstyles.

It is 8 to say exactly what people wear in Britain and the US, because everyone is different. If you are not sure what to wear, watch 9 other people do and then do the same. You'll feel more relaxed if you don't look too different from everyone 10.

二、阅读理解, 根据下面短文内容判断句子的正误, 正确的填“A”, 错误的填“B”

Last Friday after I got my pay, I went shopping on my way home. In the crowded supermarket, I lost my purse and my money was gone with it. I felt very angry and sad. We were not rich and the money was important for us. How could I tell my wife about it?

I felt really sorry for losing the money. When I got home, I cleaned the house and prepared a nice meal. I hoped what I did could comfort(安慰) my wife. When she came back, she was surprised to see the clean house and the nice meal. Then I began to tell my story when we were at table, but my wife didn't respond(反映) as if she had not heard my words. Maybe she was trying hard to hide her anger, I thought.

"I've lost my pay." I said to her again.

"I see." She didn't seem to be angry with me. For a moment, she said nothing but enjoyed the meal with me.

"I've lost my money," I could not help asking, "why don't you blame(责备) me?"

"Oh, my dear," she raised her eyes, looked at me and said, "I'm thinking about how to comfort you. It's the thief who is to be blamed!"

- ( ) 1. I got my pay last Monday.
- ( ) 2. In the supermarket I lost my purse and money.
- ( ) 3. I cleaned the house because I liked doing it.
