第廿七章 續用清代郵戳

概 說

戳史是以戳之形式分類，不論其使用時期。例如中英文日戳啓用於 1899年 4 月，盛行在 1920年，在 1945及 1948年仍有使用者。（詳戳史第 2 冊），木刻地名戳亦然，（戳史第 3 冊）均在清代啓用，民元後繼續使用。故不分清代民國，不作斷代之分割。

且中國郵局向有撙節物資之傳統，郵戳用到不堪使用時始換發新戳。戳式時有改變，舊式郵戳仍在使用。甲辰二年（1904）啓用之干支小型雙圈與單圈楷字日戳，民元後見有改用民國年曆使用者，但為數特少耳。

CHAPTER 27 CH'ING DYNASTY CANCELLATIONS THAT CONTINUED IN USE

Summary

The classification of cancellations is based on form, regardless of the period of time of use. For example, the Chinese English dater began its use in April of 1899 and became widespread in 1920 and was still in use up to 1945 and 1948 (See Volume II, the History of Cancellations of China). The same is true for wooden cancellations bearing place names (See Volume III, the History of Cancellations of China). These cancellations began in the Ch'ing dynasty and continued to be used after the first year of the Republic. Therefore, there is no dynastic demarcation. The Chinese postal offices were known for their thriftiness, and many cancellations were not replaced until they were completely worn out. Eventhough the form changed, the old cancellations were still used.

In 1904, the small double circle and single circle daters with standard script bearing lunar dates were still used by simply changing the dates to the calendar of the Republic. However, such cases were rare.

Greetings from C. F. H. and W. L. H.
 from Kuling China.
 To all the Dales
 a Summer Colony
 of a rather different sort from that at Acetion. But it is very pleasant
 Here just the same even if we are some 3500 ft
 above the sea level.
 Our dwelling is well located with
 a mountain back
 right in our side
 yard and a view
 from our piazza that includes mountains miles away. C. F. H.
