

Beacon Lights of History

by John Lord, LL.D.

Volume III.

Part I--The Middle Ages.

CONTENTS.

MOHAMMED.

SARACENIC CONQUESTS.

Change of public opinion about Mohammd

Astonishing triumph of Mohammdanism

Old religious systems of Arabia

Polytheism succeeds the doctrines of the Magians

The necessity of reform

Early life of Mohammd

Cadijeh

Mohammd's meditations and dreams

His belief in a personal God

He preaches his new doctrines

The opposition and ridicule of his countrymen

The perseverance of Mohammd amid obstacles

His flight to Medina

The Koran and its doctrines

Change in Mohammed's mode of propagating his doctrines

Polygamy and a sensual paradise

Warlike means to convert Arabia

Mohammed accommodates his doctrines to the habits of his countrymen

Encourages martial fanaticism

Conquest of Arabia

Private life of Mohammed, after his success

Carlyle's apology for Mohammed

The conquest of Syria and Egypt

Conquest of Persia and India

Deductions in view of Saracenic conquests

Necessity of supernatural aid in the conversion of the world

Authorities.

CHARLEMAGNE.

REVIVAL OF WESTERN EMPIRE.

Ancestry and early life of Charlemagne

The Merovingian princes

Condition of Europe on the accession of Charlemagne

Necessity for such a hero to arise

His perils and struggles

Wars with the Saxons

The difficulties of the Saxon conquest

Forced conversion of the Saxons

The Norman pirates

Conquest of the Avars

Unsuccessful war with the Saracens

The Lombard wars

Coronation of Charlemagne at Rome

Imperialism and its influences

The dismemberment of Charlemagne's empire

Foundation of Feudalism

Charlemagne as a legislator

His alliance with the clergy

His administrative abilities

Reasons why he patronized the clergy

Results of Charlemagne's policy

Hallam's splendid eulogy

Authorities

HILDEBRAND.

THE PAPAL EMPIRE.

Wonderful government of the Papacy

Its vitality

Its contradictions

Its fascinations

The crimes of which it is accused

General character of the popes

Gregory VII. the most famous

His personal history

His autocratic ideas

His reign at the right time

Society in Europe in the eleventh century

Character of the clergy

The monks, and the need of reform

Character of the popes before Gregory VII.

Celibacy of the clergy

Alliance of the Papacy and Monasticism

Opposition to the reforms of Hildebrand

Terrible power of excommunication

Simony and its evils

Secularization of the clergy

Separation of spiritual from temporal power

Henry IV. of Germany

Approaching strife between Henry and Hildebrand

Their respective weapons

Henry summoned to Rome

Excommunication of Henry

Henry deserted and disarmed

Compelled to yield to Hildebrand

His great mistake

Renewed contest

Humiliation of the Pope

Moral effects of the contest

Speculations about the Papal power

Authorities

SAINT BERNARD.

MONASTIC INSTITUTIONS

Antiquity of Monastic life

Causes which led to it

Oriental asceticism

Religious contemplation

Insoluble questions

Self-expiations

Basil the founder of Monasticism

His interesting history

Gregory Nazianzen

Vows of the monks

Their antagonism to prevailing evils

Vow of Poverty opposed to money-making

That of Chastity a protest against prevailing impurity

Origin of celibacy

Its subsequent corruption

Necessity of the vow of Obedience

Benedict and the Monastery of Monte Casino

His rules generally adopted

Lofty and useful life of the early monks

Growth and wealth of Monastic institutions

Magnificence of Mediaeval convents

Privileges of the monks

Luxury of the Benedictines

Relaxation of discipline

Degeneracy of the monks

Compared with secular clergy

Benefits which Monasticism conferred

Learning of the monks

Their common life

Revival of Learning

Rise of Scholasticism

Saint Bernard

His early piety and great attainments.

His vast moral influence

His reforms and labors

Rise of Dominicans and Franciscans.

Zeal of the mendicant friars

General benefits of Monastic institutions

Authorities

SAINT ANSELM.

MEDIAEVAL THEOLOGY.

Birth and early life of Anselm

The Abbey of Bee

Scholarly life of Anselm

Visits of Anselm to England

Compared with Becket

Lanfranc, Archbishop of Canterbury

Privileges of the Archbishop

Unwillingness of Anselm to be elevated
Lanfranc succeeded by Anselm
Quarrel between Anselm and William Rufus
Despotic character of William
Disputed claims of Popes Urban and Clement
Council of Rockingham
Royal efforts to depose Anselm
Firmness and heroism of Anselm
Duplicity of the king
His intrigues with the Pope
Pretended reconciliation with Anselm
Appeals to Rome
Inordinate claims of the Pope
Allegiance of Anselm to the Pope
Anselm at Rome
Death of William and Accession of Henry I.
Royal encroachments
Henry quarrels with Anselm
Results of the quarrel
Anselm as a theologian

Theology of the Middle Ages

Monks become philosophers

Gotschalk and predestination

John Scotus Erigena

Revived spirit of inquiry

Services of Anselm to theology

He brings philosophy to support theology

Combats Nominalism

His philosophical deductions

His devout Christian spirit

Authorities

THOMAS AQUINAS.

THE SCHOLASTIC PHILOSOPHY.

Peter Abelard

Gives a new impulse to philosophy

Rationalistic tendency of his teachings

The hatreds he created

Peter Lombard

His "Book of Sentences"

Introduction of the writings of Aristotle into Europe

University of Paris

Character of the students

Their various studies

Aristotle's logic used

The method of the Schoolmen

The Dominicans and Franciscans

Innocent III.

Thomas Aquinas

His early life and studies

Albertus Magnus

Aquinas's first great work

Made Doctor of Theology

His "Summa Theologica"

Its vast learning

Parallel between Aquinas and Plato

Parallel between Plato and Aristotle

Influence of Scholasticism

Waste of intellectual life

Scholasticism attractive to the Middle Ages

To be admired like a cathedral

Authorities

THOMAS BECKET.

PRELITICAL POWER.

Becket a puzzle to historians

His early history

His gradual elevation

Friendship with Henry II.

Becket made Chancellor

Elevated to the See of Canterbury

Dignity of an archbishop of Canterbury

Lanfranc

Anselm

Theobald

Becket in contrast

His ascetic habits as priest
His high-church principles
Upholds the spiritual courts
Defends the privileges of his order
Conflict with the king
Constitutions of Clarendon
Persecution of Becket
He yields at first to the king
His repentance
Defection of the bishops
Becket escapes to the Continent
Supported by Louis VII. of France
Insincerity of the Pope
Becket at Pontigny in exile
His indignant rebuke of the Pope
Who excommunicates the Archbishop of York
Henry obliged to compromise
Hollow reconciliation with Becket
Return of Becket to Canterbury
His triumphal procession

Annoyance of Henry
Assassination of Becket
Consequences of the murder
Authorities

THE FEUDAL SYSTEM.

Anarchies of the Merovingian period
Society on the dissolution of Charlemagne's empire
Allodial tenure
Origin of Feudalism
Dependence and protection the principles of Feudalism
Peasants and their masters
The sentiment of loyalty
Contentment of the peasantry
Evils that cannot be redressed
Submission to them a necessity
Division of Charlemagne's empire
Life of the nobles
Pleasures and habits of feudal barons

Aristocratic character of Feudalism

Slavery of the people

Indirect blessings of Feudalism

Slavery not an unmixed evil

Influence of chivalry

Devotion to woman

The lady of the baronial castle

Reasons why women were worshipped

Dignity of the baronial home

The Christian woman contrasted with the pagan

Glory and beauty of Chivalry

Authorities

THE CRUSADES.

The Crusades the great external event of the Middle Ages

A semi-religious and semi-military movement

What gives interest to wars?

Wars the exponents of prevailing ideas

The overruling of all wars

The majesty of Providence seen in war
Origin of the Crusades
Pilgrimages to Jerusalem
Miseries and insults of the pilgrims
Intense hatred of Mohammdanism
Peter of Amiens
Council of Clermont
The First Crusade
Its miseries and mistakes
The Second Crusade
The Third Crusade
The Fourth, Children's, Fifth, and Sixth Crusades
The Seventh Crusade
All alike unsuccessful, and wasteful of life and energies
Peculiarities and immense mistakes of the Crusaders
The moral evils of the Crusades
Ultimate results of the Crusades
Barrier made against Mohammdan conquests
Political necessity of the Crusades
Their effect in weakening the Feudal system