"A fig tree?" the rich man was very surprised. "Why, how old are you, may I ask?"

"I am ninety years old."

"What!" cried the rich man. "You're ninety years old. You are planting a very young tree now and it'll take years to give fruit. You certainly don't hope to live long enough to get any fruit from this tree." The old man looked around the garden. Then he said with a smile, "Tell me, sir. Did you eat figs when you were a boy?" "Sure," the rich man did not know why he asked this question. "Then tell me this," he said. "Who planted the fig trees?" "Why-why? I don't know." "You see, sir, went on the old man." Our forefathers(祖先) planted trees for us to enjoy and I am doing the same for the people after me.

B

Letter A

Dear Rose,

I like your programmes very much. I'm now writing to ask you something about American social customs(社交习惯). My American friends want me to join them in their dinner party. I am very happy and have decided to go but I'm a little worried about it, too. The social customs in my country are very different from here, and I know little about it.

Should I bring a present, such as sweets or flowers? Should I arrive on time or a little late? At the dinner table, how can I use the fork (叉子) and knife? How can I let the family know that I'm thankful for their kindness?

Wang Lin

Letter B

Dear Wang Lin,

It's a good idea to bring a small present when you go to a dinner party. Flowers are always nice, or you may bring a bottle of wine (酒) if you know that your friends drink it.

You should arrive on time or five to ten minutes late. Don't get there early. If you're going to be more than fifteen minutes late, you should call and tell them. Try to be free at the dinner table. If you don't know how to use the fork and knife, just watch the other people, and follow them. If you still have no idea of what to do, ask the person next to you.

If you like the food, say so. Of course, you'll thank them for the meal and for their kindness. It's also a good idea to send a thank-you card the day after.

Rose
