An Abstract Drawing

One day in a drawing class, the teacher told the class to draw an abstract drawing.

After a while, Tom turned his drawing in. The teacher looked at it but saw nothing, only a piece of white paper.

"What did you draw?" said the teacher.

"A cow eats grass." Tom answered.

"Where is the grass?"

"The cow has eaten it up." replied Tom.

"Well, but where is the cow?" the teacher asked again.

"It ate up the grass and then went away to drink water."
